147th Annual Convention

Journal of Proceedings

CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY, PHILADELPHIA

TUESDAY, MAY 5, 1931.

The One Hundred and Forty-seventh Annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania assembled by appointment as above at 9:30 A. M.

The Holy Communion was celebrated by the Rt. Rev. Francis Marion Taitt, S.T.D., Bishop of the Diocese, assisted by the Rev. Edward M. Jefferys, S.T.D., the Rev. Floyd W. Tomkins, S.T.D., and the Rev. Richard J. Morris.

The Bishop read the names of those who have died during the past Convention Year, with a special claim on our prayers:

Of Bishops of the Church:

Thomas James Garland
Sidney Catlin Partridge
James Henry Darlington

William Andrew Leonard
Sheldon Munson Griswold
Richard Henry Nelson

Of Priests of this Diocese:

Frederick Dunham Ward
Alfred James Pollock McClure
William Francis Ayer

Charles Forrest Schofield
Jacob LeRoy
John Frederick Schunck

Benjamin Newcomer Bird

Of Deputies to the Last Convention:

Henry Brinton Cox	Richard Francis Wood
Robert Brown Sterling	Armon Davis Acheson
Charles Watson	Horace Girton Reeder
Thomas Bleyler	J. Frederick Thomas

Of Deputies to Former Conventions:

Samuel Hinds Thomas	Benjamin Arthur Mitchell
Daniel John Bishop	Joseph Horner Coates
Andrew Jackson Smith	Thomas Broom Belfield
William Thomas Hamilton	Millard F. Roberts
Henry Driver Booth

Of Lay Representatives to the Last Convention:

Wellington Howard Metcalf

The offering was for Diocesan Missions, amounting to $43.95.

The Convention was called to order by the Bishop at 10.45 A. M., and, a quorum being present, proceeded to business.

The Order of the Day being the election of a Secretary, the Rev. L. N. Caley nominated

the Rev. Richard J. Morris

On motion, the nominations were closed and the President, having cast the ballot, declared Mr. Morris duly elected.

The Secretary appointed as Assistant Secretary

the Rev. Charles S. Lyons

The Convention confirmed the appointment.

The Rev. L. N. Caley presented the

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE DISPATCH OF BUSINESS

which was adopted:

Your Committee presents herewith its suggested program for the dispatch of business during the Convention.

It is to be understood that the hours referred to in the program are those known as Daylight-Saving Time.

In order to expedite the order of business, your Committee suggests that all Reports be made by Title as far as possible. And all through the Convention Resolutions to discharge Committees from further consideration of the subject be omitted, it being understood that they are so discharged unless the Convention recommit the matter to their further consideration, or unless the work of the Committee is unfinished.

L. N. CALEY, Chairman.

The Rev. C. H. Long presented the

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON ARRANGEMENTS

which was adopted.

The Secretary read the Canon of Courtesy, as follows:

Canon II, Section VIII. Clergymen canonically resident in this Diocese, but not entitled to seats in the Convention, Clergymen of other Dioceses of this Church, Clergymen of other Churches in communion with this Church, Candidates for Holy Orders in the Protestant Episcopal Church, Wardens of Missions organized under the provision of the Canon on The Organization of Missions, and all persons holding any office of trust under this Convention, though not members, shall be admitted to the sittings of this Convention.

The Secretary read the Report:

The Secretary of the Convention reports

That during the past year he has fulfilled his duties as prescribed by the Constitution and Canons so far as possible.

That under date of March 1 he sent out the Calls and other Documents for the Annual Convention.

That on February 1 only 43 of the Annual Reports of the Parishes and Missions had been returned out of the 225 due, many of them being very incomplete. He would ask once more that the Report blank be completely filled out, as all the figures are required for the Report to the General Convention and are a permanent record of the activities of the Parishes and Missions. This is the Report of the whole Parish and not merely of the Accounting Warden.

That boxes for the Registration of the Clerical and Lay Deputies have been placed in the vestibules of the Church and all Deputies should register at once.

That the following is Unfinished Business from the Annual Convention of 1930:

- (1) Amendment to Canon XV, Section II.
- (2) Report of the Diocesan Campaign Fund.
- (3) Report of the Committee on the Cathedral Project.
- (4) Report by the Committee on Seating Deputies from S. John, Northern Liberties.

That the following Parishes have not sent in Certificates of Lay Deputies and therefore have no Lay Deputies in this Convention: Trinity, Centreville; Christ, Eddington; Grace, Hulmeville; S. Peter, Great Valley; S. Mark, Honeybrook; S. Luke, Chadds Ford; Messiah, Gwynedd; Holy Nativity, Rockledge; Washington Memorial, Valley Forge; Messiah, Port Richmond; S. Bartholomew, Philadelphia; S. Elisabeth, Philadelphia; *S. James's, Philadelphia; S. Mary, Philadelphia; Saint Sauveur, Philadelphia; S. Thomas, Philadelphia.

The Secretary reports further:

That the following Parishes have not sent in Parochial Reports for 1930: Atonement, Morton; Christ, Franklinville; Covenant, Philadelphia; Messiah, Port Richmond; S. John, Northern Liberties; S. Paul, Elkins Park; Washington Memorial, Valley Forge. Also of the 36 Missions and Chapels entitled to seats: S. Peter, Weldon; Transfiguration Chapel.

That the following Parishes have not paid the required Assessments for 1930: Christ, Franklinville; S. Thomas, Philadelphia; Trinity, Centreville; Washington Memorial, Valley Forge.

The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

RESOLVED, That the right of Representation in this Convention of those Parishes which have not sent Parochial Reports, or have not paid their Assessments, be declared forfeited; but that they be invited to present to the Committee on Claims of Laity to Seats any facts which seem to them to justify a restoration of such rights of Representation; and, that the said Committee be instructed to consider such facts and make appropriate recommendations to the Convention; and, that meanwhile the Lay Representatives from said Parishes be invited to take their seats, but to refrain from participating in the proceedings until the Convention shall have restored the right of Representation of their Parishes.

* Received later.

The President appointed the following Committees:

Claims of Clergy to Seats:

The Rev. Frank Goostray The Rev. R. H. Gurley
The Rev. E. S. Thomas

Claims of Laity to Seats:

Mr. C. L. Harper Mr. J. L. Evans
Mr. George Hall

The Secretary read three Communications, which, on motion, were referred to the Committee on Dispatch of Business:

- (1) From the Executive Council of the Diocese in re Unemployment (Page 53).
- (2) From the Diocese of Tennessee in re Transfer of Baptized Persons (Page 58).
- (3) From the Diocese of Chicago in re Status of Deaconesses (Page 59).

The COMMITTEES ON ELECTIONS presented the Report as follows:

That in accord with Standing Order V, the Preliminary Ballot was sent out to 258 Clerical Deputies according to a list prepared by the Ecclesiastical Authority as entitled to vote and to the Rectors of the 143 Parishes in Union with the Convention (3 each) for the use of the Lay Deputies.

That from the 113 Preliminary Ballots returned the Official Ballot was prepared and sent to the Clerical Deputies and to the Lay Deputies whose election had been certified to the Secretary of the Convention under date of April 28th and to the Secretary of the Convention.

That the elections will be held in the usual manner in the Church House, the Clergy voting in the Assembly Room and the Lay Deputies in the room adjoining. The First Ballot will be taken at 1.45 P. M.

The Committee offers the following resolutions:

- (1) Amend Standing Order V, Section 1, by adding at the end of the first sentence the words

"including those appointed by the Executive Council to serve as Members of the Council."

- (2) Amend Canon XXI, Section 1, to take effect immediately, by changing the word "two" in both cases to "four," so that it shall read "four Clergymen and four Laymen to be Alternate Deputies."

For the Committee, RICHARD J. MORRIS, Chairman.

The Rev. G. E. Pember offered the following resolution:

RESOLVED, That the Proposed Amendments be referred to the Committee on Canons.

The Rev. L. N. Caley offered the following substitute resolution, which was adopted:

RESOLVED, That the Proposed Amendments be adopted at once.

The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

RESOLVED, That the Amendment to Canon XXI, Section 1, take effect immediately.

The Secretary reported the Nominations for Offices to be filled by Election, as certified to by the Committee on Elections. (See pp. 38, 39, 47-50.)

Additional Nominations from the Floor were made as follows:

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL: The Rev. J. A. Montgomery, Messrs. W. F. Fell, J. A. Pearson. Mr. G. W. Pepper, Jr., withdrew his name.

DEPUTIES TO THE GENERAL CONVENTION: The Revs. N. B. Groton, E. C. Young, C. E. Tuke, A. E. Clattenburg; Messrs. W. G. Price, Jr., Isaac Starr, L. B. Runk, I. S. Raspin, C. E. Beury, R. A. Morgan. The Rev. L. N. Caley, the Rev. C. E. Grammer, Mr. Isaac Starr, Mr. C. E. Beury withdrew their names.

BOARD OF TRIERS: The Rev. E. S. Thomas.

There being no further Nominations, on motion the Nominations were ordered closed, and, where only a sufficient number had been nominated, the Secretary was instructed to cast the Ballot for those nominated; which having been done, the President declared elected the following:

STANDING COMMITTEE: The Revs. G. G. Bartlett, S.T.D.; E. M. Jefferys, S.T.D.; Franklin Joiner; J. O. McIlhenny, D.D.; L. C. Washburn, S.T.D.

TREASURER OF THE DIOCESE: Mr. A. V. Morton.

TREASURER OF THE CHRISTMAS FUND: Mr. A. V. Morton.

TRUSTEES OF THE CHRISTMAS FUND: Messrs. Rowland Evans, C. W. Morris, J. S. Newbold, William White.

CHURCH ADVOCATE: Mr. J. L. Evans.

McFetridge, G. R. Miller, W. N. Parker, W. C. Pugh, Edward Ritchie, J. W. B. Stewart, E. S. Thomas, A. R. VanMeter, H. A. Walton, J. O. Warfield, D.D.

BOARD OF CONTROL OF DIOCESAN LIBRARY: The Revs. G. G. Bartlett, S.T.D., Croswell McBee, D.D., W. C. Pugh; Messrs. R. D. Brown, W. I. Rutter, Jr., C. R. Woodruff.

TRUSTEES OF THE EPISCOPAL FUND: Messrs. J. A. Harris, Jr., Thomas Newhall, C. S. W. Packard, Charlton Yarnall.

MEMBERS OF THE CORPORATION OF THE CHURCH FOUNDATION: The Revs. Franklin Joiner, L. C. Washburn, S.T.D.; Messrs. E. B. McCarthy, R. A. Morgan, H. R. Robins.

The Lay Deputies confirmed the election.

The following were nominated as members of the BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE CATHEDRAL FOUNDATION: The Revs. G. G. Bartlett, S.T.D.; G. C. Carter, D.D.; Messrs. J. V. Merrick, Thomas Robins.

The Chair appointed the Tellers as follows:

CLERICAL VOTE: The Revs. E. J. Bubb, N. H. Caley, F. B. Downs, W. H. Fryer, H. W. Jones, W. R. McKean, A. W. Mayer, J. C. Roak, W. M. Sharp, W. B. Stimson.

PARISH VOTE: Messrs. Charles Cain, E. T. Newell, W. I. Rutter, Jr., Richard Aselford, G. H. Boyd, J. A. Cragg, F. W. Leech, F. W. Lickfield, M. N. Menicon, C. H. Urban, W. W. Ware.

The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne presented the

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CANONS

as follows:

The Convention of 1930 referred back to the Committee on Canons, for further consideration, an Amendment offered at that Convention to Canon XV, Sec. II, Subsection 1. The effect of that Amendment, if adopted, would be to compel the minister of every Parish or Mission to "place on an inactive list of Communicants persons who, in his judgment, have ceased to be Communicants of the same, or who, having removed from it without notice, cannot be traced." The Committee desires to report that further consideration of this Amendment has convinced the Committee that it is not in proper form and would not serve any useful purpose, and the Committee repeats the conviction expressed last year that all legislation having to do with the classification and reporting of Communicants should be enacted by the General Convention, so as to be uniform for all the Dioceses, and the Committee asks to be discharged from further consideration of the subject.

F. C. HARTSHORNE, Chairman.

On motion, the Committee was so discharged.

The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne presented the

REPORT OF THE CHANCELLOR AND THE COMMITTEE ON CANONS

in re Seating Lay Deputies from S. John's Church, Northern Liberties, as follows:

The Chancellor and the Committee on Canons to whom was referred for further study the question of the voting power, in the Convention, of Parishes with small and diminishing congregations, desire to report that they feel that the number of such Parishes is too small to make it worth while to propose to amend the Constitution for the purpose of removing or reducing their voting power, and therefore have no recommendations to make to the Convention, and ask to be discharged from further consideration of the subject.

ROLAND S. MORRIS, Chancellor.

F. C. HARTSHORNE, Chairman of Committee on Canons.

On motion, the Committee was so discharged.

The Order of the Day having arrived the Bishop bade the Convention to Noon-Day Prayers.

The Rev. G. E. Pember presented the

REPORT OF COMMISSION ON CLERICAL SALARIES

as follows (see below):

The Rev. L. N. Caley offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

RESOLVED, That the Diocese of Pennsylvania expresses its deep and sincere appreciation for the work which has been done by the Church Pension Fund.

The Rev. C. E. Grammer offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

RESOLVED, That the various Resolutions in the above Report be presented separately.

The Rev. Mr. Pember presented Resolution A as follows:

RESOLVED, That after January 1, 1932, the minimum salary of Rectors, Missionaries and other Clergymen in the direct employ of the Diocese be fixed as follows:

A. At $1,200 during the Diaconate.

The Resolution was adopted.

Mr. Pember presented Resolution B, which was adopted:

B. At $1,500 (with rectory, if married) for the Clergymen who have been in Holy Orders one year and in Priest's Orders for less than three years.

Mr. Pember presented Resolution C, which was adopted:

C. At $1,800, with rectory, for the Clergyman who has been in Priest's Orders three, and not more than five years.

Mr. Pember presented Resolution D, which was adopted:

D. At $2,100, with rectory, for the Clergyman who has been in Priest's Orders for five years.

Mr. Pember presented Resolution E, as follows:

E. The Commission on Clerical Salaries and Pensions may, in its discretion, upon application from the Vestry, bring the salary of the Rector of a Parish up to $2,400 with rectory. Provided he has been in Priest's Orders for eight years or more; and Provided Further, that with the application for such increase the Vestry shall formally release a part of the Rector's time to be used at the discretion and under the direction of the Bishop for missionary work.

In all cases the Pension Assessments on that part of the salary of any Clergyman paid from Diocesan funds shall be paid from the same funds.

The Rev. L. N. Caley offered the following Amendment, which was accepted by the Commission:

Add after the words "in its discretion" the words "with the approval of the Bishop."

The Rev. C. E. Grammer offered the following Amendment, which was lost:

Add after the words "at its discretion" the words "with the approval of the Executive Council."

Resolution E was adopted.

Mr. Pember offered the following Resolution:

RESOLVED, That the Commission on Clerical Salaries and Pensions may, in its discretion, disregard these schedules as to years of service in the cases of men coming into the Ministry late in life, and also in the cases of men coming into our Ministry from other religious bodies with some years of ministerial experience in their former connections.

The Rev. L. N. Caley offered the following Amendment, which was accepted by the Commission:

Add after the words "in its discretion" the words "with the approval of the Bishop."

The Resolution was adopted.

Mr. Pember offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

RESOLVED, That the Commission on Clerical Salaries and Pensions be authorized to assess the Parishes and Missions of the Diocese in a sum not exceeding $10,000 for the purposes of the Sustentation Fund for 1932.

Mr. C. L. Harper, for the

COMMITTEE ON CLAIMS OF LAITY TO SEATS

presented the Report as follows:

RESOLVED, That the following Parishes, having presented Parochial Reports for 1930, be restored to representation in this Convention, viz.: S. Paul's Church, Elkins Park, and S. John's Church, Northern Liberties.

On motion, S. Paul, Elkins Park, was readmitted; but not S. John, Northern Liberties, as the Bishop refused to receive the Report presented.

The Secretary announced the S. James's Church, Philadelphia, has presented the Certificate for Lay Deputies and therefore has representation in this Convention.

The Rev. G. E. Pember, for the COMMITTEE ON STUDY OF THE CATHEDRAL PLAN, reported "Progress" and asked that the Committee be continued.

On motion the Committee was continued.

The REPORT OF THE DIOCESAN CAMPAIGN FUND was presented by Title.

The Polls were declared open at 1.45 P. M.

The Convention took a Recess at 1 P. M. until 2.30 P. M.

The Convention reassembled at 2.35 P. M., the Bishop in the Chair.

The Order of the Day having arrived, the Bishop of the Diocese read his ANNUAL ADDRESS and presented a copy of his OFFICIAL ACTS.

The Rev. J. M. Collins presented the REPORT in re a Memorial to the late Bishop of the Diocese, which was adopted, as follows:

Philadelphia, May 4, 1931.

To the Members of the Diocesan Convention:

At the meeting of the Executive Council of the Diocese on April 10th a resolution was adopted calling for the appointment of a Committee to consider the establishment of a Memorial to Bishop Garland. The committee was instructed to report either to a special meeting of the Executive Council, or to the Convention of the Diocese, "with suggestions as to the nature of the Memorial."

In accordance with the resolution, Bishop Taitt appointed the undersigned Committee, which met as early as possible after appointment and gave careful consideration to the various questions which seem to be involved in the matter. The Committee begs to submit to the Convention the following conclusions:

1. It appeared to the Committee to be obviously impossible in the short period between the meeting of the Executive Council above referred to and the present meeting of the Diocesan Convention to reach any final decision as to the nature of the Memorial, which might be offered as a suggestion to this Convention.

2. The Committee feels that it must point out to the Convention the fact that the proposal to establish such a Memorial involves not only the question as to the nature of the Memorial, but also the question as to the best method to be followed in obtaining the necessary funds. It seems to the Committee that this latter question must be carefully considered in its proper relation to other financial efforts of a Diocesan-wide nature.

3. Finally, the Committee believes that while the proposal to establish a Memorial to Bishop Garland might properly originate in the Executive Council of the Diocese, the whole matter is of such general interest and importance to the people of the Diocese as to require the careful consideration and full approval, not only of the Executive Council, but also of the Diocesan Convention, as the body most completely representative of the Diocese.

With the above-mentioned conclusions in mind, the Committee wishes to offer the following Resolution:

RESOLVED, That the Convention of the Diocese heartily approves the proposal to establish a Memorial to Bishop Garland, and requests the Chairman of the Convention to appoint a Committee consisting of five Clergymen, five Laymen and five Laywomen of the Diocese to give further consideration to the matter;

RESOLVED, That the Committee is hereby instructed to report to the next meeting of the Diocesan Convention, or, if in the judgment of the Bishop it seems advisable, to a special meeting of the Executive Council of the Diocese, in which case the Executive Council shall have power to take appropriate action.

Respectfully submitted,

REYNOLDS D. BROWN, J. C. H. MOCKRIDGE, D. D.,
JAMES M. COLLINS, JOSHUA ASH PEARSON,
WALLACE E. CONKLING, Committee.

The Rev. C. E. Grammer offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

RESOLVED, That a Committee be appointed by the Chair to recommend to the Convention appropriate Resolutions on that part of the Bishop's Address which referred to our late lamented Diocesan.

The Chairman appointed the following Committee:

The Rev. C. E. Grammer, the Rev. E. M. Jefferys, the Rev. W. J. Cox, Mr. E. H. Bonsall, Mr. G. W. Jacobs.

The Order of the Day having arrived, the Bishop called the Rev. M. E. Peabody, Chairman of the Field Department, to the Chair.

After a short service of devotion the Convention was addressed by:

The Rev. Arthur M. Sherman, S.T.D., late of China.
The Rev. John H. Chapman, of Alaska.
The Rev. Charles H. Collett, of the National Council.

Mr. R. D. Brown offered the following Resolutions, each of which was adopted:

1. RESOLVED, That the Convention heartily endorses that portion of the Bishop's Address in which he expresses the hope that the Diocese may substantially enlarge the sum received for Advance Work for the National Church before the General Convention meets in September at Denver.

2. RESOLVED, That the Bishop be requested to appoint a Committee of three Clergymen, three Laymen and three Laywomen to consider the best means of accomplishing this result.

The Bishop appointed the Committee as follows:

The Revs. M. E. Peabody, G. E. Pember, J. C. H. Mockridge;
Messrs. R. D. Brown, G. W. Pepper, P. S. Williams; Mrs. J. W. Martin, Mrs. George Woodward, Mrs. C. R. Pancoast.

The Bishop resumed the Chair.

The Order of the Day having arrived, Mr. W. W. Frazier, Jr., read the

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE

The Rev. E. M. Jefferys offered the following Resolution, which under the Rule was laid over until the next day. (See page 60.)

RESOLVED, That the Second Ballot be taken on Wednesday at 10.30 A. M.

The Convention took a Recess at 5.15 P. M.

CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY, PHILADELPHIA

WEDNESDAY, MAY 6, 1931, 9.30 A. M.

The Convention reassembled as above, the Bishop in the Chair.

The President opened the Session with prayer.

The Rough Minutes were read and approved.

The Rev. G. E. Pember reported for the QUOTA COMMITTEE and offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

RESOLVED, That the method for establishing the Quota for 1932 be the same as that used by the General Convention.

The Rev. W. M. Sharp presented the

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CHARTERS

To the One Hundred and Forty-seventh Annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania:

The Committee on Charters respectfully reports that it met on May 5, 1930, at the call of the Convener and organized by the election of the Rev. Walter C. Pugh as Chairman and the Rev. William MacD. Sharp as Secretary.

The Committee considered the application of Trinity Church, Swarthmore, for permission to change its Charter by By-Law providing for an increase in the number of vestrymen from nine to twelve.

The Committee finds that the application is in accordance with the provisions of the Canon of the Diocese regulating Changes in Charters.

The application has been approved by the Bishop and the Standing Committee and the Committee on Charters concurs therein and recommends that it be approved by the Convention, and offers the following Resolution:

"RESOLVED, That the application of Trinity Church, Swarthmore, for permission to change its Charter to provide for an increase in the number of Vestrymen from nine to twelve be approved."

By order of the Committee,

WILLIAM MACD. SHARP, Secretary.

The Resolution was adopted.

Mr. A. V. Morton presented by Title the

REPORT OF THE TREASURER OF THE DIOCESE

and offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

WHEREAS, There appear on the books of the Treasurer a number of Churches which have not paid the Episcopal and Convention and Sustentation Fund Assessments for 1927, 1928, 1929 and 1930,

AND WHEREAS, Some of these Churches are closed, others have requested cancellation for various reasons, and others have failed to advise reasons for not remitting; Therefore be it

RESOLVED, That the Assessments on these three lists mentioned above be referred to the Finance Committee of the Executive Council for further investigation, and with power to cancel such Assessments if the circumstances warrant it.

The Rev. Granville Taylor presented the

REPORT OF THE EPISCOPAL HOSPITAL

The Rev. J. E. Hill presented by Title the

REPORT OF THE BUDGET COMMITTEE

and offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

RESOLVED, That the Executive Council be authorized to prepare the Budget for 1932 on the basis of the Budget for 1931, as to form, scope and amount, with such changes as are necessary to meet the conditions existing in the autumn.

The Rev. W. C. Pugh presented the REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CONTROL OF THE DIOCESAN LIBRARY
and offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

RESOLVED, That the Treasurer of the Diocese be authorized to pay the usual sum of $500 for the support of the Diocesan Library for the coming year.

The Secretary of the Convention explained the importance of filling out completely the form of Parochial Report and of excluding all items from the Current Expense figures which are not placed there by the Canon.

The Secretary reported that Mr. S. F. Houston, who was elected a Deputy to the General Convention, would be unable to serve and that therefore two Lay Deputies must be elected.

The Order of the Day having arrived the Polls were declared open at 10.30 A. M. and the Convention took a Recess.

The Convention reassembled at 10.50 A. M., the Bishop in the Chair.

The Rev. J. R. Hart addressed the Convention on the work of the Young People's Fellowship.

The Order of the Day having arrived the Rev. S. R. West presented the Resolution of the Executive Council of the Diocese as follows: (See page 37.)

WHEREAS: A serious situation confronts this country; in fact the whole of the civilized world: the problem of unemployment. It would be serious and appalling were it an incident or consequence of the recent financial upheavals; but when we realize that it began to manifest itself for a considerable period before those upheavals, our concern becomes greater. As the president of a great corporation (the American Telephone and Telegraph Company) recently declared:

"We can hardly accept as a satisfactory civilization one which periodically jeopardizes the livelihood of millions of people and leaves in the wake of each era of jeopardy ill-cared-for children, wrecked families and broken individuals. . . ."

Sundry expedients, panaceas, emergency efforts have been tried, charity, breadlines, soup kitchens, the "staggering" of work days,

"public works," unemployment insurance, national employment exchanges—all have been tried, either in this country or abroad, and, however helpful and even important as palliatives, they have failed to work a cure.

Surely there must be some more fundamental remedy, and believing that it is the duty of the Christian Church to aid in finding it, the Executive Council of the Diocese of Pennsylvania at the instance of its Department of Christian Social Service heartily recommends the adoption of the following Memorial to General Convention meeting in Denver this autumn:

(1) "RESOLVED, That the Diocese of Pennsylvania sends this Memorial to the General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church about to assemble in Denver in September, 1931.

The Diocese of Pennsylvania recommends to the General Convention the adoption of a Resolution providing for the appointment of a commission to study the question of the desirability from the Christian viewpoint of requiring by law that employers, and possibly employees, shall contribute to unemployment reserve funds upon some basis to be determined by law, and to report at the next session of the General Convention.

(2) RESOLVED further that in view of the urgency of such legislation, the Committee so to be appointed shall have power to publish and distribute its report and recommendations."

The COMMITTEE ON ELECTIONS presented the Report.

Resolution 1 was adopted as amended.

Resolution 2 was adopted.

The Rev. C. E. Grammer presented the REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE TO PREPARE A MINUTE ON THE DEATH OF THE LATE DIOCESAN

as follows:

The Committee appointed to prepare a suitable Resolution on the loss sustained by the Diocese in the death of our late Bishop, submits the following Minute for adoption by the Convention:

Numerous and laudatory as have been the tributes that have been paid to the memory of our late Bishop Garland, magnifying the grace of God manifest in his consistent life, in his fidelity to duty, in his freedom from assumption, in his loyalty to Christ and His Church, and recognizing his great gift of leadership, without loss of fellowship, it is still necessary that this Convention over which he presided with such wisdom, impartiality, unfailing patience and courtesy, place on record our sense of loss at his death, our veneration for his character, and our gratitude to God for his life and example.

Most of his Ministry had been passed in the Diocese and we thought that we knew him well, when we chose him as our Diocesan; but with the larger opportunity he disclosed powers of organization, administration, and leadership that surpassed our fondest hopes. It is unnecessary to do more than mention his great campaigns for our Divinity School, for the reconstruction in Japan, and for the rehabilitation and better equipment of our Missions and philanthropic institutions. Long will the fruits of his labors redound to the good of the Church and the help of the suffering. Long will his memory be revered and his example cherished in this Diocese. A brave and conscientious man, a public-spirited citizen, a humble and sincere Christian, a self-effacing and diligent Minister of the Word, an able, wise and just Bishop, who gave new vigor to this Diocese, and was an influential leader in the councils of the General Church. A zealous worker for the extension of God's Kingdom throughout the world, he was a gracious gift of God to the Church.

The Convention speaks for the Diocese when it pays this tribute to his memory and sends a message of sympathy to his devoted wife in her sore bereavement.

The Minute was adopted unanimously by a standing vote.

The Secretary read the Memorial from the Diocese of Tennessee as follows: (See page 37.)

The resolution quoted below was unanimously adopted by the Ninety-eighth Annual Convention of the Church in the Diocese of Tennessee, and the Secretary was directed to send copies of the same to the Conventions of other Dioceses in the United States, inviting them to take similar action.

RESOLVED, That this Convention memorialize the General Convention to amend Canon 44, Section I., in such wise as to extend the application thereof to baptized members of this Church other than Communicants.

The Rev. L. N. Caley offered the following Resolution:

RESOLVED, That the Memorial be adopted.

The Rev. C. E. Grammer offered the following Substitute, which was adopted:

RESOLVED, That action on this question be postponed indefinitely.

The Secretary read the Memorial from the Diocese of Chicago, asking that this Diocese take similar action, as follows: (See page 37.)

RESOLUTION CONCERNING DEACONESSSES PASSED BY THE CONVENTION OF THE DIOCESE OF CHICAGO, FEBRUARY 3, 1931

WHEREAS, The recent Lambeth Conference has reaffirmed the Resolution passed by the Lambeth Conference of 1920 to the effect that the Office of a Deaconess is primarily a ministry of succour, bodily and spiritual, especially to women, and should follow the lines of the primitive, rather than of the modern, Diaconate of men; and

WHEREAS, The Lambeth Conference of 1930 has declared that the Ordination of a Deaconess should everywhere include prayer by the Bishop and the Laying on of Hands, the delivery of a New Testament to the Candidate, and a formula giving authority to execute the office of a Deaconess in the Church of God; and

WHEREAS, The Lambeth Conference of 1930 has declared that every stipendiary woman-worker is entitled to proper provision for a pension; and

WHEREAS, The so-called "Deaconess Retiring Fund," even when completed, will be entirely inadequate to meet the pensions for disability and old age,

1. THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Diocese of Chicago, in Convention assembled, respectfully petitions the General Convention of the Episcopal Church to take action at its forthcoming meeting in September, 1931, defining the status of Deaconesses in accordance with the declarations of the Lambeth Conference:

2. AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That definite steps be taken at the session of the General Convention for the inauguration of an adequate pension system for the Deaconesses of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the U. S. A.

On motion Resolution 2 was adopted.

The Rev. T. L. Gossling offered the following Resolution, which was lost:

RESOLVED, That the Convention of the Diocese petition the General Convention to define the status of Deaconesses in accordance with the declarations of the Lambeth Conference.

The Rev. G. H. Dennison read the

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON MUSIC
(See Appendix M, page 344.)

and offered the following Resolutions, each of which was adopted:

1. RESOLVED, That, with the approval of the Bishop, an appropriation of $150 be made to the Festival Choir Association of the Diocese.
2. RESOLVED, That the Commission on Music be continued.

The Rev. E. M. Jefferys presented the Resolution to increase the salary of the Secretary of the Convention to $1,000 per annum (see page 46).

The Resolution was adopted.

The Rev. L. N. Caley offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

WHEREAS, This is the 147th Annual Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, and in 3 years' time we shall be commemorating the 150th Anniversary of this Diocese,

AND WHEREAS, Many very important events in the history of the Episcopal Church in the United States of America have taken place in this Diocese,

AND WHEREAS, The 150th Anniversary should therefore be worthily commemorated,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, That a committee of seven, consisting of three Clergymen and four Laymen be appointed to consider and to report at the Convention of 1932 a plan for the worthy commemoration of an event of such great importance not only to this Diocese but to the whole Church in the United States.

The Rev. A. E. Clattenburg offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

RESOLVED, That a Committee of five Clergymen and five Laymen be appointed to consider the matter of holding a Session of the Convention of the Diocese on the Monday evening preceding the first Tuesday in May, 1932.

The Rev. E. M. Jefferys offered the following Resolution, which was seconded by Rev. C. E. Grammer, and adopted by a standing vote:

RESOLVED, That the Convention extend to Mrs. John Markoe an expression of their deep sympathy in her recent accident and an assurance of their prayers for her recovery.

The Rev. G. E. Pember presented the

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EXAMINING CHAPLAINS
(See Appendix I, page 336.)

and offered the accompanying Resolutions, each of which was adopted:

(1) RESOLVED, That the Report of the Examining Chaplains be printed in the JOURNAL.

(2) RESOLVED, That the Treasurer of the Diocese be instructed to pay bills incurred by the Examining Chaplains in their work, provided the total amount of such bills does not exceed $150.

The Bishop made the following Appointments:

EXAMINING CHAPLAINS, for the term ending in 1934: the Rev. A. J. Arnold, the Rev. W. B. Beach, D.D., the Rev. W. E. Conkling, the Rev. S. M. Holden, the Rev. C. E. Tuke, D.D.; for the term expiring in 1933: the Rev. W. H. Anthony, Ph.D., in place of the Rev. B. N. Bird, deceased; for the term expiring in 1932: the Rev. L. W. Pitt in place of the Rev. A. A. Ewing, S.T.D., resigned.

CHANCELLOR OF THE DIOCESE: Mr. Roland S. Morris.

REGISTRAR OF THE DIOCESE: the Rev. Arnold H. Hord.

COMMITTEES ON ARRANGEMENTS, CANONS, CHARTERS, DISPATCH OF BUSINESS, ELECTIONS, EXPENSES (for personnel see page 7).

The Rev. F. W. Tomkins presented the

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON EVANGELISM

The Rev. P. R. Stockman offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

RESOLVED, That the Convention send their affectionate greetings to Mr. Samuel Warnock, who is ill in the Episcopal Hospital.

The Rev. L. N. Caley offered the following Resolutions, each of which was adopted:

RESOLVED, That 650 copies of the JOURNAL and 300 copies of the Constitutions and Canons be printed and distributed as usual.

RESOLVED, That the Committee on Arrangements be instructed to arrange for the employment of the Public Address System for the Convention of 1932.

RESOLVED, That the thanks of the Convention be tendered to the Rector, Wardens and Vestry of the Church of The Holy Trinity for the use of their buildings for the meeting of the Convention.

RESOLVED, That the next Annual Convention be held on Tuesday, May 3, 1932, at such place and hour as the Bishop and Standing Committee may appoint.

RESOLVED, That the Treasurer of the Diocese be authorized to pay the honorarium of one hundred dollars to the Assistant Secretary of the Convention.

RESOLVED, That the Bishop be authorized to appoint after the adjournment of the Convention the usual Committees and Commissions.

RESOLVED, That the bills for Luncheon and for the Installation of the Address System be referred to the Committee on Expenses.

RESOLVED, That after the reading of the Rough Minutes and prayers by the President, the Convention adjourn sine die.

The Rough Minutes were read and approved.

After prayers by the President, the Convention adjourned sine die.

FRANCIS M. TAITT,
President of the Convention.

(ATTEST) RICHARD J. MORRIS,
Secretary of the Convention.

I cannot begin my Annual Report without a special reference to the Rt. Rev. Thomas J. Garland, D.D., who for nearly thirteen years as Suffragan, and for nearly seven years as Diocesan, served this Diocese with a fidelity and business ability rarely found among men. Faithful to the last, he almost literally died on his feet.

Of the other Bishops of the Church whom God has called to their rest, there are:

Sidney Catlin Partridge
 James Henry Darlington
 William Andrew Leonard
 Sheldon Munson Griswold
 Richard Henry Nelson—sometime Rector of St. Peter's Church, Philadelphia

Of the Priests of our Diocese, there are:

Frederick Dunham Ward
 Alfred James Pollock McClure
 William Francis Ayer
 Charles Forrest Schofield
 Jacob Le Roy

John Frederick Schunck
 Benjamin Newcomer Bird—the beloved Rector of St. Asaph's, Bala, and the efficient Dean of the Convocation of Chester.

Of the Deputies to the last Convention, there are:

Henry Brinton Cox
 Robert Brown Sterling
 Charles Watson
 Thomas Bleyler
 Richard Francis Wood—for many years a member of the Standing Committee
 Armon Davis Acheson
 Horace Girton Reeder—who was a Deputy to forty consecutive Conventions
 J. Frederick Thomas
 Wellington Howard Metcalf

Of the Deputies to the former Conventions, there are:

Samuel Hinds Thomas
 Daniel John Bishop
 Andrew Jackson Smith
 William Thomas Hamilton
 Benjamin Arthur Mitchell—who served for forty-seven years
 Joseph Horner Coates
 Thomas Broom Belfield—whose benefactions were many Millard F. Roberts
 Henry Driver Booth

"Time, like an ever-rolling stream,
 Bears all her sons away;
 They fly, forgotten as a dream
 Dies at the opening day.

"O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Be thou our Guide while life shall last,
And our eternal home."

For the first time I stand before this Convention as the Bishop of Pennsylvania. I cannot tell you the pride I feel in occupying the exalted position of leader of so great and distinguished a body of Clergymen and Laymen. I pray God to give me wisdom and leadership. Nor can I tell you the awe that I feel in being the successor to that noble line of God's gentlemen who have ministered in this great Diocese. The saintly Bishop White begins that list. As a night guest at Lambeth Palace last summer, it was a great privilege and it gave me a great thrill, to kneel and receive the Blessed Sacrament in the same spot where he received his Consecration as Bishop. Though venerated by all, and called the saintly Bishop, he was a human saint. He was an enormous eater, fond of mince pies, which he would butter before eating. Accompanying this was green tea as black as lye, and as strong as could be made, so that old Dr. Chapman, his physician, would say to him, "I believe if you could swallow ten penny nails, you would digest them." He was never ill until the end of his life in his eighty-fifth year. He loved to attend dances, and to see his own grandchildren dance. Having at least five hundred applications to sign the Pledge presented to him, and always replying that he had taken this pledge two or three times in his religious vows, "For," said he, "when a Christian man has promised to keep his body in temperance, soberness, and chastity, he has gone as far as language permits him to go." Tolerant toward all religious bodies, but firm in maintaining his faith in and attachment for the Episcopal Church, he was always spoken of as "our Bishop." As John Sargent said, "There will never be but one Bishop of Pennsylvania who will be known by all as "our Bishop." Business was suspended and almost the whole City of Philadelphia was present at his funeral. Because of the throng, it was with difficulty that the body was taken into the Church. No man had ever taken such hold upon a people. The great lament of all was, that his revered figure would never be seen again in Philadelphia. Following in succession we have:

Bishop Potter, the wonderful master-builder.
Bishop Stevens, the most eloquent preacher of his day.
Bishop Whitaker, the saint of God.
Bishop Mackay-Smith, the man of great sacrifice and suffering.
Bishop Rhinelander, the scholar, and man of great fascination.
Bishop Garland, the great administrator.

A man feels humble as the successor of such men as these.

There is also a great sense of responsibility. There are great problems before the Diocese, and a great work for it to do. We are in the fifth year of the Campaign Fund. Each of the preceding years took one-fifth of the whole amount subscribed, leaving all the delinquencies and failures to pay, to make themselves felt in this fifth year. The list of pledgers, who have not paid, will be sent to each Parish, and it is hoped that an effort will be made to collect. This will very greatly help us to solve the problem. Some of our Missions are like Mohammed's coffin—buildings have been started by the Diocese, and the Missions are unable to furnish the required funds for their completion. This brings mortgages, or worship in incompleting buildings.

The whole Church is also facing great opportunities to work for God; and a great Diocese like Pennsylvania wants to do its share. While we oppose

A Bishop's Work Parochialism—Diocesanism is also incomplete stewardship. Pennsylvania, second only to New York in membership and financial ability, greater than New York in its historical background, holds an enviable position. Its territory is not half that of the Diocese of New York—Pennsylvania having only 2119 square miles as against 5500 square miles in the New York Diocese. Nor do we have half the population, so that the Living Church of April 4, 1931, says "This would indicate that Philadelphia in spite of her Quaker traditions, is a greater stronghold of the Church than any other City in the United States." We want her always to be such.

I face these problems with a confidence that grows out of my election as Bishop. I did not seek the office—God called me to it. God, who called me to it, I believe will direct me in my work and will inspire the people to rise up and meet their responsibilities. Shortly after my election, I received a letter from the Rector of one of our most important Parishes. It says:

"It may be suggestive to you to recall the preamble and resolution which some of us forwarded to Dr. Drury—

"Whereas, It would appear that the repeated refusals to accept election have been at least in part due to a disinclination to undertake such exacting administrative and institutional responsibilities as are increasingly burdening the Episcopate in our American dioceses; therefore be it

"Resolved, That it is the sense of this meeting, reflecting the sentiment not only of clergy and laymen but also of influential and devoted church-women, that, whoever is now chosen to be our Bishop Coadjutor should be fully assured of our desire that he should be free to leave the serving of tables for the most part to willing assistants, and to give himself to prayer and the ministry of the Word.

"From now on, it is my hope that the stronger men, clerical and lay, who have been chiefly responsible for calling you away from your devoted parochial supporters into the more or less lonely diocesan tasks, may be moved to re-enlist to help you in such ways as you may wish. If and when you are ready to test the sincerity of our attachment, we will, I feel sure, rally to your leadership. The sacred cause of diocesan progress has a compelling claim on the allegiance and co-operation of these virile brethren; and our love for you personally must prove itself more than an idle sentiment."

Acting upon this assurance, I called together some thirty or more laymen, (men of large affairs), and a few women, to act as an Advisory Board. We want our people to know the worthwhileness of what the Church is trying to do, and both assist in these works, and inspire others to do the same. There is no lack of wealth in our Church, and there is no lack of generosity. Any cause that appeals to the public gets a great response from our own membership. It may be scientific, it may be therapeutic, it may be educational, it may be eleemosynary, but a large part of the contributions come from Churchmen. That is as it should be. What we want to do is to interest these men in the great work of the Church. The Church was never more needed than it is today. Have everything else, and omit the foundation of religion, and the fabric will fall.

We had a very hearty response to our call, everyone replying. All those who could not come expressed a willingness to help. Mr. Thomas S. Gates, President of the University of Pennsylvania, has very kindly consented to act as Chairman of the Committee, and help us formulate plans for an intelligent and efficient carrying out of the idea. We hope to enlarge this body.

I hear that Bishop Sherrill in Massachusetts and Bishop Hobson in Southern Ohio have also formed such a Committee.

The progress of the collection of $120,000 for the Advance Work of the Church has not been all that could be desired. There is still a large amount lacking. The members of the Finance Committee and others whom they have associated with them, have been most earnest and faithful. A wonderful meeting was held at the Academy of Music last year, with at least 2,500 persons present. The Missionary Bishops gave a thrilling account of their work, and the interest of the people was great. Scarcely a person withdrew until the very end. There were probably 2,000 people who came to the stage to greet the Bishops. At the Convention held the next day, other Bishops and Missionaries gave us their stories. We shall not soon forget the wonderful appeal of the Rev. Robert I. Johnson for a hospital for his people at New Bern, N. C. Everyone was greatly moved. Iolani School had no sponsor, but your Bishop has seen the work in Honolulu, and knows of the influence of this School both in China and Japan as well as in the Isles of the Pacific. Probably no Institution in our whole Church is more far-reaching.

The Diocese, however, had considerable trouble in getting together its apportionment for the year 1930, and every Parish had made a second appeal to secure this sum. Those whose incomes were small had probably given to the limit. It was hoped that considerable sums would be given by those blessed with a large share of this world's goods. This is still our hope.

The annual apportionment made to each Parish is simply to support existing work. No Church can stand still—we must go forward. Although we had difficulty in meeting our apportionment, we felt that a Diocese of the standing of Pennsylvania must assume some of the Advance Work. Such an assumption would not only assist in the work itself, but would inspire others to give. I believe Pennsylvania was the first Diocese to assume a part of this work. Its example was quickly followed by others. We should remember that the first General Convention was held in 1785 in Philadelphia; this coming one in Denver will be the fiftieth meeting of the General Convention. How grateful we will be to God if at the Fiftieth Triennial meeting of this branch of the Church, which had its birth in our own great city, we, as a Diocese shall present our whole promise to the Church. It is my earnest hope and prayer that the entire amount will be secured so that it may be sent to the General Convention, meeting in Denver this September. To present it then, when it is really due, would greatly hearten the National Council.

Such a thing is still possible; but what is to be done must be done quickly.

On July sixth, 1930, I laid the cornerstone of St. Augustine's, Norristown, (a Chapel of St. John's, Norristown).

Progress
in the Diocese

On November twenty-third, I dedicated the Parish House and consecrated the Church Building of St. Augustine's Chapel, Norristown.

On March sixth, 1931, I laid the Cornerstone of the Mission of the Transfiguration, Seventh and Bigler Streets.

A Parish House at Linwood has been dedicated for St. Martin's, Marcus Hook.

A beautiful Parish House has been built and dedicated at St. Mary's, Wayne.

I dedicated also the Chapel at the Leamy Home.

The Church of the Advocate has installed microphones which have greatly improved the acoustics.

Huntingdon Valley Chapel, Meadowbrook, has installed a $15,000 organ.

St. Peter's, Phoenixville, has received a legacy of $25,000 from the estate of William H. Reeves.

Christ Church, Upper Merion, has had its Parish House renovated.

The Chapel of the Mediator has burned a $25,000 mortgage, the last encumbrance on its buildings.

St. John the Baptist, Germantown, has secured a fine memorial organ.

St. Martin's, Ithan, has been left a legacy of $50,000, the income of which is to be used for the upkeep of the Chapel; and also the sum of up to $8,000 to be used for windows; together with two and a half acres on which the Church is situated.

The Church of the Atonement, Morton, has just celebrated its fiftieth anniversary.

St. Elisabeth's has had a great revival. The work was at its lowest ebb when the Rector of St. James Church, Philadelphia (at the Bishop's request) took charge. It is my desire that no foreign work shall be permanent in this Diocese. Services must be held for those who do not speak our tongue. The public schools, however, train the children in American ideals and in the English language. They will never be satisfied with the service to which their fathers have been accustomed. At St. Elisabeth's on every Lord's Day there is a celebration of the Holy Communion in Italian and in English. At the midday service, and in the Sunday School the English language only is used. The congregations have quadrupled and a splendid work is being done in the neighborhood. We have great hope of the future.

In The House of Bishops at the last General Convention, the following statement was adopted:

The American Missal

"After fifteen years of careful study, the Church is authorizing for use in public worship a revised and enriched Book of Common Prayer.

"This book is now the only authorized manual set forth by this Church for acts of corporate worship.

"One of the most conspicuous perils in modern American life is a tendency to put an undue emphasis upon personal liberty, and to pay little respect to what has been set forth by duly constituted authority. There is need in the Church as in the State to sound a call to loyalty. Your Bishops, assembled in triennial session, made an appeal for a loyal recognition of our common obligation to render generous obedience in observing in their integrity the provisions of our enriched Book of Common Prayer.

"Such loyalty does not, of course, preclude, as occasions may require, special services as provided for in the rubrics of the Prayer Book or authorized by the Bishops; but it does demand of the authorized Ministers of the Church obedience to the rubrical directions of its authorized book of worship, as at all times binding upon priest and people. These rubrics and the various offices of the book are the solemn expression of the mind of this Church. To ignore or disregard them or to set them aside and substitute other forms for them, is an obvious violation of the Church's law and order. . . ."

When one considers the constituent members of a General Convention, he finds that every phase of Churchmanship is represented. Extreme care is exercised before any part is altered, or any addition is made to the Prayer Book. Each change adopted at a General Convention is sent to each Diocese, and finally adopted at a subsequent Convention. A revised Prayer Book under such conditions, represents the mind of the Church as far as that mind can be ascertained. There is in the Prayer Book, thus revised, the order for the administration of the Holy Communion. There is no other permitted order for that administration. The Priest or people may introduce their private devotions inaudibly; they may also use such manual acts as they see fit, but the Book upon the Altar from which the service is read must be the authorized form for the administration of the Sacrament.

The American Missal (by what authority it is so called I do not know) has sent advance sheets to the Clergy and Bishops. In its rubrics, which are not directions of our Church, are printed in the same type and color with the valid directions; and unauthorized additions are made to the text of the Canon.

I do not know that this purely individual fiction is used in any Parish of this Diocese. I trust it is not. Canon 46, section VI, declares, "It shall be the duty of the Ecclesiastical Authority of any Diocese or Missionary District in which any unauthorized edition of the Book of Common Prayer, or any part or parts thereof shall be published or circulated to give public notice that the said edition is not of authority in this Church."

When I give this notice I am sure, if by any means this book may have been inadvertently introduced, it will be removed from the Altar. The Priests of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, I know, are loyal to their Church and such a statement from the House of Bishops and such a Canon will come to them with compelling force.

There are several things on which I wish briefly to speak.

First—Candidates for Holy Orders—We have the distinction of having more young men preparing for the Ministry than any other Diocese. This rejoices my heart as there is no nobler nor higher work to which a man can devote his life. There is also no other work that calls for so high a degree of self-forgetfulness, and consecration. We show our consecration by the willingness with which we take up hard tasks that are necessary to our preparation for an efficient Ministry. The time is past when "goodness" is the only requirement. Rectors who are preparing Candidates should urge upon them the necessity of literary and theological preparation. The Church prescribes the length of time of Candidacy and the proper preparation. Except for grave reason, no dispensation of time or subject should be asked. We want all Ordained in the Diocese of Pennsylvania to be "able Ministers of the New Testament."

Second—Executive Council—This is one of the most important bodies in the Church. It considers, determines, and directs the Missionary work of the Church. Certain members are elected by Convention; certain are elected by Convocations; and certain are appointed by the Council itself. Care should always be used to select men who are accustomed to deal with subjects as great as those that will come before the Council.

Third—Confirmation—The visit of the Bishop should be a great day in every Parish. It is the one opportunity which he has of meeting and knowing the members of the congregation. They should all be there. It is also the occasion when Baptized children, having come to years of discretion, are seeking God's strength for the more perfect doing of His will. The Vestry and the older members of the congregation should be there to welcome them; and not only to wish them God-speed, but to help them in their high endeavor. Many Confirmations are held on nights other than Sunday. This is necessarily so, but with care nearly every member of the congregation could be present.

Fourth—Sunday Schools—The Diocese of Pennsylvania prides itself on its Sunday Schools and well it may. It is striving by having a Director of Religious Education and several Church Normal Schools to provide proper training for its children. I wish something could be done to bring its membership back to what it was a quarter of a century ago. I take up the Living Church Almanac for 1931 and find therein:

Sunday School Teachers	3,061
Sunday School Scholars	26,112

I take up the oldest Journal of Convention that happens to be in my study, which is 1909 (twenty-two years ago) and there I find:

Officers and Teachers	4,070
Scholars	41,710

This is a terrible shrinkage. I find that there are in the Diocese over 70,000 communicants, almost three times as many as we have scholars in the Schools. It seems to me that no Church is safe whose Sunday School is smaller than its Communicant list.

Fifth—Woman's Auxiliary—I could not close my address without expressing my great indebtedness to that wonderful organization, the Woman's Auxiliary. No more better informed; no more deeply interested; and no more generous givers to the Church's work can be found anywhere. Let them but know what the Church would have them do and they most gladly and generously undertake it.

I want to say that I am extremely happy in my work. No one could be met with more affection than has been extended to me. I do not need, nor want a Coadjutor or Suffragan at present. For many years I have, single handed, administered a very large Parish, and I love the work. As Bishop of Pennsylvania I will need the assistance of a Bishop for about two months in the work of Confirmation. There are not enough available days in the year to provide for all the visitations, and I will need more hands, but I think one head (with your assistance) should be sufficient. My work this last year has been continuous. I have preached nine, ten, and eleven times a week. There have been days when I have made five or six addresses, but it was for this work that I entered the Ministry. It gives me the great opportunity of bearing my witness and delivering my message. It is not this work that breaks a Bishop down. God has given me good health. I am closely scheduled three times every Sunday, and many weekdays until June twenty-eighth. On that day after I preach in celebration of the 171st anniversary of Christ Church, Bridgeport, I go in the afternoon to New York and sail away for a six weeks' rest. I want to say that I feel as well today, and almost as fresh as when I entered upon the work last Fall. And now, brethren, I commend you to the grace of God. Work, give, and pray for the extension of Christ's Kingdom, and the up-building of Christian character, the only power that can save the world.

MEMORIAL NOTICES

Of Bishops of the Church:

SIDNEY CATLIN PARTRIDGE, Second Bishop of Western Missouri, died at his home in Kansas City on June 22, 1930, in the seventy-third year of his age. He was born in New York City on September 1, 1857, receiving his early education abroad and in Brooklyn, New York. He was graduated from Yale University in 1880 and, after a year at Yale Divinity School, also from the Berkeley Divinity School in 1884. He was made Deacon that same year by Bishop Williams and ordained to the Priesthood in China by Bishop Boone in 1885, having gone to that country at once for missionary work. For three years he was a teacher at S. John's College and Chaplain at S. Mary's Hall in Shanghai, after which he started the work at Wuchang, where he remained for thirteen years, being consecrated first Missionary Bishop of Kyoto on February 2, 1900, by Bishops McKim, Schereschewsky and Graves. In 1911 he was translated to the Diocese of Kansas City, which became the Diocese of Western Missouri three years later. He had been in failing health since 1927, and was completely disabled for the last five months. Able to speak six languages as well as two dialects of Chinese and oral and written Japanese, familiar also with Syriac and Italian, he was essentially a scholar and well fitted for Oriental contacts; while a natural dignity of manner, coupled with an unusual personal magnetism and complete forgetfulness of self, gave him a place in the Councils of the Church which it will be hard to fill.

JAMES HENRY DARLINGTON, First Bishop of Harrisburg, died at the hospital in Kingston, New York, where he had been taken for a slight operation, on August 14, 1930, in the seventy-fifth year of his age. He was born in Brooklyn, New York, on June 9, 1856, graduating from the University of

New York in 1877 and from the Princeton Theological Seminary in 1880 where he had been educated for the Presbyterian Ministry. However he became attracted to the Church and was made Deacon in 1882, ordained to the Priesthood the same year by Bishop Littlejohn. During his Diaconate he was Assistant Minister at Christ Church, Brooklyn, becoming Rector in 1883. He was elected Bishop of Harrisburg when the Diocese of Central Pennsylvania was divided in 1904, being consecrated on April 4, 1905, by Bishops Whitaker, Seymour and Whitehead. Always interested and active in matters concerning Church Unity, especially in connection with the Eastern Churches, he was the recipient of many honors and decorations from foreign organizations and served on many delegations. At the time of his death he was President of the Province of Washington. An author of considerable ability in both prose and poetry, he published also a musical edition of the Hymnal which attracted some attention.

WILLIAM ANDREW LEONARD, Fourth Bishop of Ohio, died at his home in Cleveland, Ohio, on September 21, 1930, in the eighty-third year of his age. He was born in Southport, Connecticut, on July 15, 1848, receiving his early education at Andover Academy, Saint Stephen's College and Berkeley Divinity School. He was made Deacon in 1871 and ordained to the Priesthood in 1873. During his Diaconate he served as Curate at the Church of The Holy Trinity, Brooklyn, New York, and was Rector of the Church of The Redeemer in Brooklyn from 1872 to 1880. In the latter year he accepted a call to Saint John's Church, Washington, where he remained until 1889. He was consecrated Bishop on October 12, 1889, by Bishops Williams, Whipple and Doane, acting as Assistant to Bishop Bedell until the death of the latter in 1893 when he became Diocesan. He was thus the Senior Bishop of the Church after Bishop Vincent's resignation on October 2, 1929, and as such presided at the elections of Bishop Anderson and later of Bishop Perry as Presiding Bishops.

SHELDON MUNSON GRISWOLD, Fifth Bishop of Chicago, died in the hospital at Evanston on November 28, 1930, in the seventieth year of his age. For three years his health had not been good, he having undergone three operations during that time, and for seven weeks had been gradually sinking. He was born in Delhi, New York, on July 8, 1861, graduating from Union College in 1882 and from the General Theological Seminary in 1885, being ordered Deacon and ordained to the Priesthood that same year by Bishop Doane. He was Missionary at Ilion, Mohawk and Frankford in the Diocese of Albany from 1885 to 1888; Rector of Emmanuel Church, Little Falls, from 1888 to 1890, and of Christ Church, Hudson, from 1890 to 1902, serving also as Archdeacon during the four last years. He was consecrated First Missionary Bishop of Salina on January 8, 1903, by Bishops Doane, Seymour and Hall, carrying on that very difficult work until his translation to Chicago as the Second Suffragan Bishop of that Diocese on January 8, 1917, being instituted as Bishop on May 13, 1930. Lofty in character, child-like in modesty and simplicity, full of fun and laughter, deeply spiritual in his habits of thought and living, he was perhaps best known and loved as Pastor Pastorum.

THOMAS JAMES GARLAND, Eighth Bishop of Pennsylvania, died on Sunday, March 1, 1931, in the sixty-fifth year of his age. He was born in Belfast, Ireland, on October 25, 1866, receiving his early education at Saint Bees' College, with subsequent First Class Theological Examinations at Oxford and Cambridge Universities. Coming to this Country in his youth, he entered the steel business at Pittsburgh, rising rapidly to become General Manager and Treasurer of several subsidiary companies. Deciding to study for the Ministry, he was made Deacon in 1891 and ordained Priest the year following, both by Bishop Whitehead. After a short Assistantship at Saint Peter's Church, Pittsburgh, he became Rector of All Saints Church, Johnstown, from 1892 to 1894, when he accepted a call to Trinity Church, Coatesville, leaving there in 1898 to accept the Rectorship at Saint David's Church, Loraine, Ohio. In 1900 he returned to the Diocese as Rector of Saint Paul's Church, Bristol, becoming Secretary to the Bishop in 1904. In 1911 he was consecrated Bishop Suffragan of Pennsylvania by Bishops Tuttle, Mackay-Smith and Whitehead, being elected Diocesan in January, 1924, and installed in May. From 1903 to 1905 he was also Assistant Editor of The Church Standard; from 1904 to 1910 Instructor in Church History at the Church Training and Deaconess House; from 1908 to 1911 Secretary of the Third Missionary District, and represented the Third Province on the National Council from 1927 to his death. He had also the unique honor of being the only American Episcopal Canon at Saint George's Cathedral, Jerusalem. Possessed of wide vision and great executive ability he led the Diocese forward in many ways, both spiritual and temporal, particularly in the rehabilitating of the Diocesan Missions and Institutions toward which he raised over $2,000,000; in the development of the Divinity School by a million dollar fund; in the rebuilding of Saint Luke's Hospital, Tokyo, for which $250,000 was given; and in the purchase of 100 acres as the site for the future Cathedral activities. He also founded and was President of the Council of Welfare Agencies, which has since become the Welfare Federation for the City. He will be continually and increasingly remembered as one of the great Bishops of the Diocese.

RICHARD HENRY NELSON, Second Bishop of the Diocese of Albany, died at his home in Albany, New York, on April 25, 1931, in the seventy-second year of his age. He was born in New York City on November 10, 1859, graduating from Trinity College, Hartford, Connecticut, in 1880 and from the Berkeley Divinity School in 1883. He was made Deacon that same year and ordained to the Priesthood the year following, both by Bishop Williams. During his Diaconate he was Assistant Minister at Saint John's Church, Stamford, Connecticut, becoming Rector of Grace Church, Waterville, New York, in 1884. He remained there for three years, when he accepted a call to Christ Church, Norwich, Connecticut, where he served for ten years. In 1897 he became Rector of Saint Peter's Church, Philadelphia, where he took also an active part in Diocese affairs, serving as a Trustee of the Diocese and as a member of the Standing Committee, and being nearly elected Bishop Coadjutor in 1902. In 1904 he was elected Bishop Coadjutor of Albany, and was consecrated on May 19 by Bishops Doane, Whitaker and Walker. He became Diocesan at Bishop Doane's death in May, 1913, resigning owing to failing health in 1929.

Of Priests of this Diocese:

FREDERICK DUNHAM WARD, a Retired Priest of the Diocese, died suddenly at Atlantic City, New Jersey, on September 20, 1930, in the seventieth year of his age. He was born in Hamilton, Bermuda, on December 5, 1860, living there until he came to this country in 1884. He was made Deacon in 1892 and ordained Priest the year following. From 1892 to 1896 he was Rector of Saint Peter's Church, Sycamore, Illinois, and from 1896 to 1897 of Saint Paul's Church, Plymouth, Wisconsin. In the latter year he became Curate at Saint Paul's Church, Paget, Bermuda, coming to Saint Clement's Church, Philadelphia, as Curate in 1899. In 1908 he accepted a call as Rector at Saint Elisabeth's Church, where he remained until his health broke in 1928, when he became Professor of Church History and New Testament at Saint John's College, Greeley, Colorado. For many years he was Master of the Congregation of the Companions of The Holy Saviour. Of a sweet and loving and self-sacrificing disposition he endeared himself to all who knew him.

ALFRED JAMES POLLOCK McCLURE, a Retired Priest of this Diocese, died at his home in Ventnor, New Jersey, on December 2, 1930, in the seventy-seventh year of his age. He was born in Bloomsburg, Pennsylvania, in 1854, and graduated from Princeton College in 1879. He was made Deacon by Bishop Stevens in 1885 and ordained to the Priesthood in 1887 by Bishop Whitehead. In 1885 he was Assistant Minister at the Church of The Mediator; in 1886, Chaplain of the Episcopal Hospital; from 1887 to 1893, Assistant Minister at the Church of The Holy Trinity; and from 1893 to 1900, Rector of All Hallows' Church, Wyncote. In the latter year he became Treasurer of the General Clergy Relief Fund, which he developed very considerably, resigning that position in 1917 when the Fund was taken over by the Church Pension Fund. Shortly after this he founded Saint Leonard's School in Ventnor, New Jersey, and became Head-Master. The Burial Service was held at Trinity Church, Princeton, New Jersey, on December 4th.

WILLIAM FRANCIS AYER, Chaplain of Christ Church Hospital, died on December 27, 1930, at the Episcopal Hospital in the seventy-sixth year of his age. He was born at Portland, Maine, in 1855, graduating from Bowdoin College and from the Divinity School in Philadelphia in 1888. He was made Deacon the same year and ordained to the Priesthood in 1889, both by Bishop Whitaker. In 1886 he organized the Memorial Chapel of The Holy Communion, presented to the Church of The Holy Apostles by Mr. George C. Thomas as a thank-offering, remaining there as Vicar until 1906, when he became Chaplain of The Episcopal Hospital, where he served for twenty years. In 1926 he accepted the appointment as Chaplain of Christ Church Hospital.

CHARLES FORREST SCOFIELD, a Retired Priest of this Diocese, died in Phoenix, Arizona, on January 3, 1931, in the seventy-second year of his age. He was made Deacon on February 28, 1915, and ordained Priest on September 25 of that same year, both by Bishop Garrett. In 1916 he was transferred to this Diocese from Dallas to become Priest-in-charge of Saint Mary's Church, Warwick, and of Saint Andrew's Church, West Vincent, where he remained for four years. In 1921 he became Locum Tenens at the Church of The Atone-ment, Morton, and in charge also of Saint James Mission, Prospect Park, leaving after a few months to become Rector of Saint James Church, Perkiomen. In 1925 he became also Priest-in-charge of Epiphany Mission, Royersford. His health failed in 1929 and he was forced to resign all active work.

JACOB LE ROY, Rector Emeritus of the Church of Saint Martin-in-the-Fields, died at his home in Chestnut Hill on January 6, 1931, in the eighty-first year of his age. He was born in Hartford, Connecticut, on April 6, 1850, receiving his early education at the Episcopal Academy, Chester, graduating from Trinity College in 1869 and from the Berkeley Divinity School in 1872. He was made Deacon that same year by Bishop Williams and ordained to the Priesthood in 1874 by Bishop Niles. From 1872 to 1875 he was in charge of Saint Mark's Church, Ashland, New Hampshire; from 1875 to 1885, Rector of the Church of The Good Shepherd at Nashua; from 1885 to 1889, Rector of Zion Church, Greensburgh, New York, coming to this Diocese in the latter year as Rector of Saint Martin's Church. After thirty years in that Parish his health commenced to fail and he was elected Rector Emeritus. He was Dean of the Convocation of Germantown from 1900 to 1919 and served in many other positions during his long Rectorship.

JOHN FREDERICK SCHUNCK, a Non-Parochial Priest of this Diocese, died in Baltimore, Maryland, on January 16, 1931, in the sixty-third year of his age, being struck by an automobile while crossing the street. He was born in Baltimore on December 22, 1868, graduating from Johns Hopkins University in 1897 and from the Divinity School in Philadelphia in 1901. He was made Deacon by Bishop Satterlee that same year and ordained to the Priesthood the year following. From 1901 to 1916 he was Priest-in-charge at Saint Peter's Church, Weldon, Pennsylvania. During the next few years he was engaged in Red Cross work, serving as Captain of the American Red Cross, Pennsylvania Division, in France from 1918 to 1922. For the last five years he has been a Welfare Worker in the Maryland State Penitentiary at Baltimore and assisting at the Pro-Cathedral of The Incarnation.

BENJAMIN NEWCOMER BIRD, Rector of Saint Asaph's Church, Bala, and Dean of the Convocation of Chester, died at the Rectory on February 12, 1931, in the forty-eighth year of his age. He was born in Chester, Pennsylvania, on June 22, 1883, graduating from the University of Pennsylvania in 1905 and from the Divinity School in Philadelphia in 1908. He was ordered Deacon on June 14th of that year and ordained to the Priesthood the following year. From February, 1908, to October, 1909, he was connected with Trinity Church, Wilmington, Delaware, as Lay Reader, Deacon, and Assistant Priest. He was Curate at Saint James's Church, Philadelphia, from 1909 to 1911, when he accepted a Call as Rector to the Church of The Messiah, Gwynedd. For six months in 1918 and 1919 he was Civilian Chaplain at Camp Meade, being in charge of Epiphany Chapel, Odenton, Maryland, most of the time. In 1921 he became Rector of the Church of Saint Asaph with the Parochial Chapel of Saint Andrew at West Manayunk. He was elected Dean of the Convocation of Chester to succeed the Bishop Coadjutor in 1930. For many years he was on the teaching staff of the Church Training and Deaconess House, an Examining Chaplain of the Diocese in 1930, and a member of many other Committees.

June 3, 1930.—The Rev. Charles Townsend was elected to a vacancy on the Board of Triers.

Consent was given to the election of the Right Reverend James Craik Morris, D.D., to be Bishop of Louisiana.

Consent was given to the ordination and consecration of the Reverend George Craig Stewart, D.D., L.H.D., to be Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Chicago.

Consent was given to the ordination and consecration of the Reverend Henry Knox Sherrill, D.D., to be Bishop of the Diocese of Massachusetts.

October 7, 1930.—Consent was given to the ordination and consecration of the Reverend Frederick Deane Goodwin, D.D., to be Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Virginia.

Consent was given to the ordination and consecration of the Reverend Charles Kendall Gilbert to be Bishop Suffragan of the Diocese of New York.

Consent was given to the ordination and consecration of the Reverend Benjamin Tibbitts Kemerer to be Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Duluth.

Consent was given to the ordination and consecration of the Reverend Robert Nelson Spencer to be Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of West Missouri.

November 18, 1930.—Approval was given to the bid for repairs to the Bishop's house.

January 6, 1931.—Consent was given to the Diocese of Minnesota to elect a Bishop Coadjutor.

The Standing Committee by resolution indicated to the Bishop their readiness to join with him in drawing on the Treasurer of the Episcopal Fund for an annual salary for the Reverend Richard J. Morris of $4,000.00.

In response to a request from the Bishop asking for advice and counsel in regard to the application of Miss Amelia Sanford to be ordered a Deaconess, it was voted to recommend that the Bishop proceed under the present Canon.

February 3, 1931.—The following Resolution was passed on the death of Mr. R. Francis Wood:

"The Standing Committee places upon its records this minute of appreciation of R. Francis Wood, the oldest member of the Committee, who died January fifteenth in his eighty-first year.

"He had been a member of the Committee continuously since 1900 with the exception of one year, and its Secretary from 1904 to 1922.

"He was informed regarding all the details which go to make up the life of the Diocese, and interested in all that made for its growth and usefulness. He was Vice-President of the Episcopal Academy and of the Bishop White Prayer Book Society, and officially related to many more organizations in the Church.

"A member of the Philadelphia bar for sixty years and having active business interests; quiet in manner but with strong convictions and the courage to express them; a man of sound judgment, his counsel and advice in the matters which came before the Committee were helpful and much valued.

"Notwithstanding his advanced years, he was faithful in his attendance and alert and active in meeting the duties of his office. His genial and kindly disposition and willingness to bear his share in the labors and responsibilities of the Committee will be cherished memories.

"RESOLVED, That this minute be entered upon the records, and a copy be sent to the family."

In reference to the matter of the application of Mr. Pedrette for recommendation to the Bishop for ordination to the Diaconate, it was decided that he be recommended to the Bishop subject to the proviso that Mr. Pedrette will not be ordained until and unless the Bishop be satisfied that Mr. Pedrette is assured of a position, carrying a living wage, where he may exercise his ministry.

Holy Trinity Church was appointed as the place of meeting of the Annual Convention of the Diocese, with the understanding Parochial authority would be secured.

March 3, 1931.—At the request of Bishop Taitt, Mrs. Garland was given the use of the Bishop's house until October or later, if necessary.

It was voted that the Bishop's salary be continued to Mrs. Garland for three months at the existing basis.

It was voted that the funeral expenses of Bishop Garland be borne by the Diocese.

The following Minute on the death of Bishop Garland was adopted:

"Bishop Garland is dead. Suddenly, at Eventide, Sunday, March the first, the summons hence came to him; and the Standing Committee of the Diocese, in session this Tuesday, the third, makes record of our common bereavement with profound regret, and would express for itself and those it represents, deep and sincere appreciation of our late leader's life and labors here and in the Church at large.

"Born in Ireland, October 25, 1866, Thomas James Garland came to America as a youth, and entered upon a promiseful business career in Pittsburgh. At large sacrifice as a young man of twenty-five he responded to the vocation of the sacred ministry and was ordained Deacon in 1891 and Priest in 1892 by the Bishop of Pittsburgh. He was married that year to Miss Elizabeth McKibben, of that City, who has been his devoted helpmeet through the two score years since. After a brief term as Assistant in St. Peter's Church, Pittsburgh, he served successively as Rector of All Saints, Johnstown, for two years, of Trinity Church, Coatesville, for two years, and of St. Paul's Church, Bristol, for three years.

"In each of these cures he exerted an abiding influence as a beloved pastor and constructive adviser. From 1904 to 1911 he was the efficient Secretary and trusted confidant of Bishop Whitaker and Bishop Mackay-Smith, acquiring an intimate knowledge of the manifold activities of this important Diocese. So that when in 1911 Bishop Mackay-Smith called for the election of both a Coadjutor and a Suffragan, and the Rev. Philip Mercer Rhinelander was chosen Coadjutor, Mr. Garland was elected to the position of Suffragan. As such he served with accustomed vigor and faithfulness until 1924, when upon the resignation of Bishop Rhinelander, he was elected upon the first ballot to be the eighth Bishop of Pennsylvania.

"These distinguished Fathers in God, with their distinctive gifts, each in time contributed greatly to the extension and enrichment of the Kingdom in this strategic jurisdiction; and the accomplishments which have characterized Bishop Garland's intensive seven years' regime will stand out as enduringly noteworthy.

"For five of these exacting years he, of choice, carried the heavy burdens of our Episcopate alone; his indomitable energy driving him to the limit of his physical endurance. And beyond our boundaries in the Provincial Synod and National Council his resourceful influence has been unstintedly exerted. Verily his works do follow him; and many there are who thank God for what he has done for them.

Above the material memorials of his aggressive industry, we cherish the gracious qualities of his personality. His keen intelligence, devout spirit, and warm heart, linked with his sturdy Christian convictions and tolerant Churchmanship, illumined with his ever-ready smile were always welcome elements in our frequent counsellings. To his bereaved widow and relatives we extend our heartfelt sympathy; and we unite in the prayer that he may go from strength to strength in the life of perfect service beyond the veil. The echo of his tender tones when ministering consolation to so many in their afflictions lingers in our memory as he is laid to rest:

"I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar."

The Bishop submitted nominations to the Annual Convention of the Diocese meeting on May 5th, as follows:

Chancellor of the Diocese, Roland S. Morris.

Directors of Cathedral Foundation:

The Rev. George G. Bartlett	Mr. A. J. County
The Rev. G. C. Carter	Mr. Benjamin Rush

Board of Council of City Missions:

The Rev. J. M. Collins	Mr. E. H. Bonsall
The Rev. C. E. Eder	Mr. E. P. Bissell
The Rev. Frank Goostray	Mr. O. H. Bullitt
The Rev. J. E. Hill	Mr. J. L. Patton
The Rev. F. W. Tomkins	Mr. H. N. Platt
The Rev. G. H. Toop	Mr. W. H. Thomas
The Rev. L. C. Washburn	Mr. E. F. Hoffman
The Rev. S. V. Wilcox	Dr. C. J. Hatfield
The Rev. Louis W. Pitt	Dr. H. D. Jump
	Dr. W. P. Klapp

to which approval was given.

Mr. Parker S. Williams was unanimously elected to fill the vacancy in the Standing Committee caused by the death of Mr. R. Francis Wood.

Consent was given to the ordination and consecration of the Reverend Wyatt Brown, D.D., Litt.D., to be Bishop of the Diocese of Harrisburg.

April 7, 1931.—Owing to the resignations of Mr. A. J. County and Mr. Benjamin Rush from the Cathedral Chapter the nominations by the Bishop of Mr. Thomas Robins and Mr. J. Vaughan Merrick to the Convention in their place were approved.

Consent was given to the setting apart of Miss Amelia Sanford as a Deaconess.

Approval was given to Trinity Church, Swarthmore, to increase the number of their Vestry from nine to twelve.

Approval was given to Trinity Church, Swarthmore, to the placing of a Mortgage of $20,000 on the Church property.

May 5, 1931.—The sub-committee of the Standing Committee on the merger of St. John's, Northern Liberties and Emmanuel Church, Kensington, reported that all legal requirements had been complied with. The Standing Committee will take up the consideration of the subject at a future meeting.

W. W. FRAZIER, JR.,
Secretary.

APPENDIX F

Report of the Treasurer of the Diocese for the Year 1930

The report of the Treasurer of the Diocese for the year 1930 audited is submitted herewith. The Diocese fulfilled its pledge to the National Council by paying its quota of $229,000 in full. In order to enable the Diocese to meet its own maintenance obligations, it was necessary to borrow $7,391.45, of which $1,931.95 has already been refunded and the balance of $5,459.50 will be refunded as promptly as possible.

Notwithstanding the business depression the parishes and missions have responded generously during the past year. Sixty-one have paid their full quota, or exceeded it, and sixty-eight have paid either more or as much as their expectation, although as a total the parish and mission givings were $9,734.46 less than in 1929.

We have called the attention of Treasurers, Accounting Wardens, and Rectors to the resolution of the Convention in regard to remitting their missionary money monthly, in order to reduce our overdrafts, and although there has been some improvement during the past year as compared with the previous year, only a few are remitting with some regularity, as will be seen by the following table.

Number of Parishes and Missions Remitting per annum	Number of Remittances per annum

The Treasurer, and the Assistant Treasurer desire to again express their grateful appreciation to Messrs. Drexel and Company for the continuation of the advantageous arrangements whereby a credit to a limited amount has been extended, so that overdrafts may be made, and to the Parishes and Missions and Woman's Auxiliary, as well as other financial organizations of the Diocese for the ready assistance in the preparation of the records comprising this report, and to the financial staff in the Treasurer's office for its efficient and faithful service throughout the year.

We cannot close this report without making acknowledgment of the consideration and courtesy always shown us by Bishop Garland during the years it was our privilege to serve under him and whose untimely death removed a valued adviser in the affairs of the Diocese with which we are charged.

APPENDIX G

Report of the Executive Council

The Executive Office comprises the Office of the Executive Secretary and Field Secretary, the Treasurer's Office and the Publicity Department.

This report is written when the Diocese of Pennsylvania has just lost a great Bishop. He was a most humble man of God, a sincere Christian with a child-like faith, and also, in the words of Senator Pepper, "an administrator and executive whose talents have not been surpassed by any of his predecessors."

Of him, a keen judge of men in another city writes: "Here was a man who would have made a great Presiding Bishop. Somehow I thought of him as a modern St. Paul. Best of all, I found in him something that was inexpressibly winsome. The Church has lost a mighty man of God. The National Council has lost a man of statesmanlike proportions. Pennsylvania has lost a Bishop whom they will delight to honor, as time goes on."

The Diocese has sustained another great loss in the death of Dean Bird of the Convocation of Chester. His heart was on fire for the cause of missions, and he took it for granted that every other Christian naturally felt the same way. He was showing fine gifts of leadership and it seemed that an important future of usefulness in the Church was before him, when God suddenly took him for other work.

- (1) For the second time in the history of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, the quota ($229,000) asked of the Diocese by the National Church was paid in full. Funds came in as usual, due to the excellent work of the Deans and Lay members of the Executive Council in co-operation with the Vestries of the various parishes and missions, and the aid of the Woman's Auxiliary, until in late December bank failures and the business depression affected the whole city. Then it was that Bishop Garland in one week raised $51,000 and, adding $7,500 from other funds at his disposal, paid the pledge of Pennsylvania, saying, "I would rather cut off my right arm than have Pennsylvania's pledge to fail."

The Executive Council wishes to emphasize most emphatically that the amount of the quota of the Diocese depends upon each parish. The amount sent in as "current expense" is the only basis the National Council uses for the quotas. Many in Pennsylvania feel that through carelessness or ignorance this "current expense" is reported too large. If this is so, then the Rectors and Accounting Wardens have only themselves to blame for larger parish quotas. The Executive Council requests that the utmost care be used in making out parochial reports so that the Diocese shall not be given more than its "share." If any doubt arises, telephone the Bishop's Secretary, who will give exact information.

- (2) The Advance Work Program has been presented to the Diocese most admirably by Mr. Spencer Ervin and his Committee, and the Woman's Auxiliary. The literature has been excellent and much interest has been aroused. At this writing $52,192.91 has been received in cash or pledges from 79 parishes and missions.
- (3) The Summer Volunteer Work in missionary districts, following Dr. Grenfel's idea in Labrador, has great possibilities, both for the Diocese and the Mission Field.
- (4) Building contracts and operations were supervised at St. John the Evangelist and St. Ambrose, Philadelphia, and at St. John the Evangelist, Essington, and St. James, Prospect Park.

The Financial Secretary has had an appraisal made of most of the mission properties of the Diocese, and has placed with the Church Properties Fire Insurance Corporation $1,648,660 worth of insurance. This Corporation will help the Diocese and the whole Church more and more in the years to come.

- (5) It may seem stale news to repeat that "The Church News" closed the year 1930 with a profit, but it is the only church paper in the United States with such a record. Every Vestryman in the Diocese has received a copy. The three Church Extension Fund calls, prepared by the Department, brought in $9,078.05.
- (6) It has been a pleasure to go through the Diocese presenting the missionary cause. There is only one suggestion; the Field Secretary dislikes to refuse the invitations of any of his brethren, the Clergy, but he is only one man. If they will make out their schedules early in the year, he can more easily fit himself into them. Again he wishes to thank them for brotherly kindness shown in so many ways.

THE DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION

The missionary work of the Diocese during the year 1930 was under the supervision of Bishop Taitt and with the keen oversight that he was able to give it, considerable progress had been made. Now at the beginning of the new year, as we write this report, we have lost, by the death of Bishop Garland, one whose first interest was the missionary work of the Church. While we mourn his loss, we thank God for the life he lived and the work he did. May we who are left carry on the work, which in so many instances, he began. For those who are really interested in details, I would commend to you the pamphlet published by the Executive Committee of the Campaign Fund for Missions and Institutions, entitled, "For the Glory of God in the Diocese of Pennsylvania."

May I also mention the loss that has come to the Diocese in the death of the Very Rev. Benjamin N. Bird. Young in years, but rich in experience in the Master's Vineyard, he did a good work as rector of St. Asaph's, as Dean of the Convocation of Chester and a faithful and regular attendant of the Department of Missions. May his soul rest in peace, and light perpetual shine upon him.

To Bishop Taitt, who now becomes our Diocesan, we pledge our loyal support and co-operation.

During the year, the Department held nine meetings and considered such matters as were referred to it by the several Convocations, together with the work among the foreign born and the Colored people.

The total budget for the Department of Missions, amounting to $69,533.02, ministers to the needs of sixty-two Diocesan Missions, together with our work at Galilee Mission, Sheltering Arms, State College and Mt. Alto.

During the year, with the approval of the Bishop, St. Joseph's, Gladwyn, was taken over as a parochial Mission by All Saints, Wynnewood; St. John's, Concord, was put in charge of the Rev. William Bellis, Minister in Charge of the Church of the Advent, Kennett Square; and St. Elisabeth's and L'Emmanuello were put under the supervision of St. James Church (22nd and Walnut Streets). These changes, we feel sure will add to the efficiency of the work and save the Diocese several thousand dollars.

The Church of the Messiah, Port Richmond, has been sold and given as its new site that occupied by St. Matthew's, Oxford Circle, where it is hoped a splendid work can be done.

Thanks to the Diocesan Campaign Fund, St. Ambrose has a new parish building; St. John the Evangelist, 3rd and Reed Streets, a new parish building; St. John's, Essington, an improved parish building, and St. James, Prospect Park, a rectory.

Work has been started on a new Chapel for St. Mary's of the Annunciation and a Chapel for the Mission of the Transfiguration at 7th and Bigler Streets.

The Department regrets that nothing has been done in the way of a building for the West Oak Lane Section. We have a fine lot, surrounded with hundreds of houses, which presents an opportunity which the Church should grasp.

During the year, a canvass was made of that section of the city known as Overbrook Hills. A number of Church families were found, but as we lacked the necessary funds, no new work could be started. By an agreement with the near-by Rectors, these persons are now being cared for by St. Paul's, Overbrook.

The Department, during the year, was the recipient of a $5,000 legacy from the Estate of Elizabeth J. Shortridge. This, with the approval of the Executive Council, has been invested to start an endowment fund for the Department of Missions.

Concerning our work among the foreign born, Archdeacon Bullitt writes: "There have been two outstanding events in the work among the Italians, during 1930. On July 1st, the Rev. Dr. Mockridge, Rector of St. James's Church, took over the supervision of L'Emmanuello, which continues to use the buildings of St. Elisabeth's. Its congregation and attendance is growing steadily. The house next door to St. Mary of the Annunciation has been bought through the Diocesan Campaign Fund. It will be torn down, as well as the present Chapel, and a new and larger Chapel, with a finished basement, will make it possible for the congregations to be seated at the services and there will be rooms for meetings of the Parish organizations. The handicap of too small a Chapel and Parish room will be removed and this Mission should grow much more rapidly than it has done. The Polish Missions continue much as before. The Advent is steadily losing ground and the time is not far off that it must be moved to some location near where its members live. The work at the Holy Redeemer, now that the Rev. Edward N. Baczewski gives his whole time to it, is making vigorous and healthy growth. That it has fallen only very little behind in its offerings, considering that so many of its people are unemployed, is most gratifying; while in all other ways, there has been an increase in its activities. The two Missions under the charge of the Rev. Ambrose Baczewski, St. Mary's, Manayunk, and Holy Trinity, Conshohocken, continue to hold their own, though the latter has had to struggle against a strenuous effort of the Romanists to win its people to them.

"The Sunday School for the Roumanians, at St. John's, Northern Liberties, has had another year of steady, quiet work, giving its scholars a knowledge of Christianity and the Church, which they might not otherwise acquire, as the Roumanian Church has no Church School of any kind."

Archdeacon Phillips wrote about his work as follows: "Work among the Colored people is being carried on in eight places. The last one, begun by the Rev. Mr. Deaver, Rector of St. Thomas' Church, is at 1301 Master Street. It is called "St. Christopher's Mission." The building, with the aid of a number of voluntary workers, is open every afternoon and evening in the week. One of the Missionaries, in addition to a Mission Station, has been appointed to visit the following institutions: Cheyney Normal School, Cheyney, Penna.; Downingtown Industrial School, Downingtown, Penna.; Convalescent Home, 1504 Catherine Street, Philadelphia."

There is another piece of missionary work to which the Diocese contributes $2,770 which we should know something about. Miss Mary Ormsby, who is in charge of the Hebrew Christian Synagogue, situated at 517 York Avenue, Philadelphia, writes: "That this is the Diocesan working center for promulgating Messianic truth among the Jews. The work is under the care of a special committee of men, appointed by the Bishop, together with a committee of women, who have undertaken the over-sight of the work and have assumed financial responsibility for all charitable enterprises. Classes for instruction for adults in the Bible and Prayer Books are conducted weekly on Thursdays and Sunday evenings. Mr. P. Shapiro assists in the Hebrew and Yiddish languages. Industrial classes for children, with religious teaching combined, are held during the afternoons. Visitation and distribution of literature also form an important part in what is being done. The results show that prejudice is vanishing—friendly relationships established. Many are led to a knowledge of the truth—some have been baptized and some presented for confirmation.”

You will find attached the Treasurer’s report and a detailed statement of the missionary work in our several Convocations, prepared with considerable trouble by the Deans, together with a report of the Treasurers of the Woman’s Aid of Convocations. We would urge a careful survey of the same by the members of the Council and the communicants and friends of the Church.

THE DEPARTMENT OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

The Department of Religious Education receives, discusses and acts upon the reports presented by the seven Commissions, Adult Education, Church Schools, Students, Summer Conferences, Teacher Training, Weekday Religious Education and Young People.

The records for the past year show that amongst the topics under consideration have been: Weekday Religious Education, Student Work, Church School Enrollment, Refresher Courses at the Philadelphia Divinity School, Diocesan Normal School, Lenten Offering Presentation Services, Annual Church School Institute, Young People’s Work, School of Practise, Supervision of Teachers, Correspondence Lessons, Publication of the Offices of Instruction.

The Department is chiefly concerned with the creation of educational policies and programs.

The interest of the Clergy and Church School Officers and Teachers has grown, but the Department feels that every parish should take advantage of the fund of materials which are available to assist them in this important part of the pastoral ministry.

The Lenten Offering, the largest ever received (except during the Jubilee Year, 1927) was $75,629.20—all parishes and missions except five reporting.

A keener interest was noted in the Devotional Service held in connection with the Advent Offering and Bishop’s Bricks Fund.

The Diocesan Normal School is making a great contribution to the Religious Educational life of the Diocese. In this School two hundred and one individual students enrolled, with four hundred and forty-six class registrations.

Five issues of the Bulletin have been sent during the past year to more than three thousand Clergymen, Officers and Teachers.

We have announced to the Diocese that the Director of Religious Education, the Rev. Frederick E. Seymour, was here to serve. The Diocese has taken us at our word, and has used him constantly. He has made special visits to thirty-six parishes or missions for the purpose of preaching or conferring and planning with the clergy and Church School officers and teachers in the furtherance of Religious Education.

During the year he has given six courses in Teacher Training at the Church House and at St. Luke’s Church, Germantown; St. John’s Church, Lansdowne, and St. Mark’s Church, Frankford. He has arranged for the Presentation Services in the different Convocations of the Diocese and has planned the Annual Institute and Bishop’s Bricks Fund Service. In addition he has attended and addressed the Main Line Sunday School Association at All Saints’ Church, Wynnewood; Good Samaritan, Paoli; Trinity Church, Coatesville; the Germantown Sunday School Association at Calvary, Germantown; and the West Philadelphia Sunday School Association at St. Barnabas Church and the Chapel of the Mediator.

His position has brought him into active contact and co-operation with particular groups interested in Religious Education, such as the Young People's Conference at St. Simeon's, the Joint Diocesan Lesson Board, Blue Mountain Summer Conference Meeting, Class in Religious Education in Temple University.

In the need of keeping abreast of modern movements in Religious Education he has attended educational committee meetings at the Church Missions House, New York; the National Conference of Educational Leaders in St. Louis, Mo., and the Quadrennial Convention of the International Council of Religious Education at Toronto, Canada.

The task of forming vital connections between the Church and students who come to this Diocese from various parts of the world is enormous. We have made contacts with the Clergy near educational institutions. Our efforts to reach the institutions in the city have met with many obstacles due chiefly to the crowded lives of the students. Our Clergy are untiring in their efforts.

At Temple University, Mr. Horace E. Perret, a student of the Philadelphia Divinity School, has succeeded Mr. Frank F. Foote.

Our Commission is continuing energetically to wrestle with this great problem.

The Young People's Fellowship has continued to grow, but we believe it has greater possibilities. Parishes where an organization of the Y. P. F. does not exist would be helped by such an activity. We believe that there should be competent spiritual leadership to make such work effective. This can only be accomplished by the encouragement and inspiration of the Clergy. The Fellowship has been strengthened by organizing in convocational groups, and representatives of the Y. P. F. have addressed the meetings of convocations, urging interest, encouragement and guidance.

THE DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL SERVICE AND INSTITUTIONS

The most important matter with which the Department dealt during the year was the Juvenile Court Work, which was undertaken in March, with the appointment of Mrs. Mabel Gwynne as Court Worker. The Department continued in charge until November, when it was decided to transfer the work to the care of the City Mission, as they, being incorporated and having many facilities for aiding in the work, were much better equipped to carry on the work successfully. Miss Sarah Alfriend was appointed by the City Mission to take charge of the work, and Miss Alfriend was also elected a member of the Department, so that we can keep in sympathetic and helpful touch with the work. An appropriation of $3,000 was placed on the Diocesan Budget for 1931 for this work. In the eight months during which the Department had charge of the work, some 80 cases were referred to us and we assumed the care of 24.

Several matters of unusual importance and interest were considered at our monthly meetings. Among others, Archdeacon Phillips presented "An Opportunity for Social Service Work" to the colored people of northeast Philadelphia. His statement of the need was supplemented by the Rev. James N. Deaver, who has started the work. The Department very heartily endorsed the work and it is now being undertaken under the direction of the Department of Missions. The problem of "Juvenile Crime" was presented by the Rev. Thomas A. Meryweather, who has had unusual opportunity to study this question as it affects the city of Philadelphia.

Deaconess Colesberry resigned from the Department because of physical disability, after serving for a number of years as one of our most useful members. Miss Dorothy Rasey, her successor at St. Martha's House, was elected to the Department.

The Rev. Percy R. Stockman represented the Department at the National Conference on Social Work in Boston last June and gave an interesting report of that important social service gathering.

The Department decided to join the Philadelphia Community Council, after making a careful study of its by-laws. This Council acts as a clearing house and conference centre for the various social service agencies and activities of the city.

The serious problem arising from the unemployment was referred to a committee to determine what measures of relief the Department and the Diocese should undertake, but it was their conclusion that the city committee, known as "The Lloyd Committee," had made such thorough plans that we could best help by co-operating with that Committee. The Department desires to place upon record its hearty appreciation of the splendid way in which this Committee has met the difficult situation created by the unemployment emergency of the past year. Their work has been wise, thorough and effective, and throughout characterized by judicious use of existing agencies, wherever possible, thereby eliminating duplication and waste of resources.

THE DEPARTMENT OF PUBLICITY

The work of the Department of Publicity is as varied as the understanding of the word "publicity". As a foreword, too much praise or credit cannot be given to the able Director of Publicity, Mr. Samuel H. Warnock, for his efficient and co-operative work. Even during these days, while a patient in the Episcopal Hospital, he is carrying on the work of the Department of Publicity.

What are the tasks and duties of the Department of Publicity?

1. "The Church News of the Diocese of Pennsylvania."

This monthly publication is second to none in the Episcopal Church. It gives, in each issue, a panoramic view of the work being carried on in this Diocese. It tells of the work of the whole Church. It brings a greeting from the Bishops. Many interesting articles appear from time to time, giving to the publication a human touch. The Editor-in-Chief, the Rev. George Copeland, has given to "The Church News" editorials unique, scholarly and worthy. The Business Manager, Mr. Charles H. Clarke, has given his valuable experience to the quality of the "make-up", the grade of paper, etc., as well as attending to securing advertisements and all other things necessary to the business side of "The Church News." Mr. Clarke reports that after all expenses were paid there was a profit for the year of $385.22. This is the eighth consecutive year that "The Church News" has closed its books with a balance. The Executive Council has authorized the mailing of the "News" to all vestrymen of parishes and officers of mission committees. The regular rate for subscriptions is one dollar a year. It is hoped that more members of the Church will subscribe individually or collectively through their organizations or rectors.

2. News furnished other publications.

The city newspapers consult and confer with Mr. Warnock in regard to items concerning the Episcopal Church. The department furnishes news articles to the local correspondents of the various national Church weeklies and the director acts as Diocesan correspondent for the Department of Publicity of the National Council.

3. Co-operation with other departments.

The Director of Publicity has assisted in the publication of a series of pamphlets prepared and issued by the Field Department. The Department also gave much assistance at the time of the meeting of the Washington Synod.

4. The Church Extension Fund.

In the operation of The Church Extension Fund, which is under the authority of the Bishop, the Department of Publicity through its Director has rendered a great service to the Diocese. The three calls issued by the Bishop and approved by the Department of Missions brought in the sum of $9,078.05. Beneficiaries designated by the Bishop for the three calls in 1930 were as follows: Holy Trinity Mission, Lansdale; St. Ambrose Mission and St. John the Evangelist, Philadelphia.

5. Co-operation in Parish Publicity.

The Department through its Director has given advice in problems of publicity in the local community and in regard to the publication of parish papers and weekly news bulletins. The department has also furnished cuts and news items to many parishes.

6. Diocesan Clearing House Bureau.

Through the Director, the Publicity Department has conducted an exchange of furniture, etc., which may be available in one part of the Diocese and needed in another.

7. Use of the Church House.

The Director of Publicity has the duty of assigning rooms in the Church House for meetings of organizations and committees. This added work Mr. Warnock has done cheerfully and willingly. During the past year, 520 meetings were held in the Church House.

Your Department of Publicity has met every demand that has been presented to it. At the present time the Department is considering the advisability of a plan used by the Diocese of Long Island of broadcasting over the radio. No definite action can be taken until the Budget Committee has considered the request of the Department for the coming year.

The Department of Publicity is truly "Service in Action." It thanks all the members of the Diocese for the moral and financial support it has received and it stands ready to go forward for a greater work of service.

THE COMMISSION ON RECRUITING FOR THE MINISTRY

During the year 1930 the Commission made grants totalling $5,300.00 to 34 Candidates and Postulants for the Ministry. This was divided as follows: 19 students received $200.00 each, 15 received $100.00 each. The average expense to each of these students in college is about $1,000.00 and the average expense to those in seminaries is $750.00. Most of the students aided have little or no possibility of help from their home parishes, or from other sources except such support as comes from scholarships and other agencies like the Commission.

There is comparatively little outside work obtainable for students, as most employers want full-time employees. In addition to that, there is a growing demand on the part of college and school authorities that full time be spent on studies, if justice is to be done them. With increasing curriculum demands there necessarily follows a decreasing opportunity for outside work. It is in view of these factors in the situation, slight financial resource on the part of the students, little remunerative outside work either obtainable or desirable (if a considerable amount of time be required), and increased college and school expenses, that the Commission on Recruiting for the Ministry finds need and justification for its existence.

The enthusiasm for the work of the Commission may easily be found where most it avails, as is evidenced by letters received from the students aided, and by the words of gratification expressed by the rectors of those students.

It is in part due to the work of the Commission, and the aid it is able to afford students, that the Diocese of Pennsylvania is in the van among the dioceses of the Church in the number of students it has for the Ministry.

FIELD DEPARTMENT

The Field Department, carrying out the orders of the Diocesan Convention, ("The Rev. Floyd W. Tomkins, D.D., offered the following Resolution which was adopted unanimously: 'Resolved, That the Convention of the Diocese endorses the action of the Bishop and Executive Council in promising to raise $113,000 for the Advance Work of the Church'"), laid careful plans to inform the Diocese of its share in this important undertaking.

1. A number of meetings were held with the Deans and Lay Chairmen and Central Missionary Committee; and a Committee of Twenty-One was formed with Mr. Spencer Ervin as Chairman. This Committee arranged for the Missionary Mass Meeting in the Academy of Music. No Diocese had ever attempted to have such a meeting in the interest of Advance Work. The Missionary Bishops at this meeting were asked to address the Diocesan Convention the following day. This committee also arranged a Campaign of Education in every parish where it was desired. Thirty-three laymen and twelve clergymen volunteered to speak. The pamphlet "Information Concerning Pennsylvania's Share in the Advance Work Program of the General Church, 1930-31", which has received such high praise from other Dioceses, was published by this Committee. The results of these efforts belong to next year's report.

2. The Missionary Conference for the Clergy at St. John's, Norristown, where 135 Clergy attended, and the Conference for the Laity at Mt. Pocono, where a small group of the leaders gathered, were very helpful. For two days clergy and laity considered the great missionary problems of the Church.

3. The Synod Missionary Dinner, where the members of this Diocese with their guests, the delegates to the Provincial Synod, packed the great dining hall of the Penn Athletic Club to hear the masterly address by Senator Pepper on the Advance Work Program, was planned by members of the Field Department.

4. A new branch of work was begun during the past year which, it is hoped, will grow rapidly and produce important results. Following the idea of Dr. Grenfel's work in Labrador, two young women were sent to St. Michael's Mission, Ethete, Wyoming, where they worked for two months without salary, their board and lodging being provided by the mission. As a result of their work, twenty-two persons were brought to Baptism. Since their return, they have been used as speakers in this Diocese.

5. The raising of the 1930 Quota was again made possible to a large extent by the individual appeal of Bishop Garland and the activities of the Deans and the lay members of the Executive Council representing their respective Convocations, in co-operation with the vestries of the various parishes and missions in those Convocations; and the Women's Auxiliary. While Bishop Garland raised over $50,000 in the few days before the books closed, he was compelled, because of the business depression, to advance $7,500 from other sources so that the Diocese of Pennsylvania should keep her promise to the National Church.

INSURANCE DEPARTMENT

During the year 1930 we made strenuous efforts toward the appraisal of all our mission properties so that if necessary it would be possible to put into effect the eighty per cent co-insurance clause. Some of our missions are over-insured and some under-insured. There are now only eleven missions that have to be appraised and this work will be done within a few weeks.

At the close of the fiscal year ending December 31, 1930, our records show that we had placed with the Church Properties Fire Insurance Corporation, fire insurance totalling $1,648,660. This covers both mission and other properties.

Quite a number of parishes are investigating the advantages of the Church insurance plan and we feel encouraged to the end that they will avail themselves of taking out fire insurance when existing policies expire.

FINANCE DEPARTMENT

The Treasurer's Report calls attention to the financial results of the business for the year. Notwithstanding the business depression which has naturally affected church contributions, it is gratifying to know that the Diocese was able to pay its full quota of $229,000.00 to the National Council and meet its own Diocesan obligations as well, having to borrow only approximately $7,500.00.

The Sunday School Lenten Offerings increased $2,608.28 as compared with last year, but the parish givings decreased $9,734.46. This falling off in receipts was met by special individual contributions.

The Finance Department has had under consideration during the past year a number of important problems, and every effort has been made to give such co-operation and assistance in controlling the financial situation of the Diocese as was possible.

CONVOCATION OF CHESTER

The Convocation of Chester suffered a great loss in the death of its Dean on February 12th, 1931.

The Very Reverend Benjamin N. Bird, Rector of Saint Asaph's Church, Bala, was elected to that office in the Fall of 1929 and since that time gave himself unsparingly to the work, having visited most of the Missions in the Convocation.

He was greatly interested, also in the Advance work, and had for years taken an active part in the Summer Schools and Conferences.

The death of R. Francis Wood, Esq., is much felt. Mr. Wood was for years a member of the Standing Committee of the Diocese and its Secretary. Long a delegate to this Convocation, which he also served as Treasurer, his council was sought and valued.

May God grant them rest and peace.

The work in all of the Missions has progressed under the leadership of the faithful Priests-in-charge.

Saint Giles, Stonehurst, Rev. Walter C. Pugh, is now occupying its beautiful new buildings, Church, Parish House and Rectory.

On the resignation of the Rev. D. L. Sanford, Saint John's, Concord, was put under the care of the Rev. William O. Bellis, Rector of Church of The Advent, Kennett Square, who is now ministering to both Congregations.

Last September, Saint Joseph's Mission, Gladwyne, was given up as a Convocational Mission and was taken over by All Saints Church, Wynnewood, the Rev. Gibson Bell, Rector.

The Rev. Arthur C. Moore is now giving his entire time to Saint Mary's Colored Mission, Chester.

During the year, the Rev. Carl L. Appelberg, Saint Martin's, Marcus Hook, and Saint Luke's, Eddystone, was advanced to the Priesthood.

The Laymen's Committee, under the Chairmanship of Mr. C. Fenno Hoffman, has done very effective work in stirring up active interest in general Missionary work and Advance work throughout the Convocation.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY TO THE CONVOCATION OF CHESTER

Year Ending December 31, 1930

SECRETARY'S REPORT

The Spring Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Convocation of Chester met at Collingdale, May 15th, 1930, with 300 representatives from 33 Parishes and Missions present. The Bishop spoke of the work the Auxiliary is doing. Dean Bird gave a very encouraging account of The Missions. Mrs. Edward Ingersoll spoke on the subject of the Blue Box and the United Thank Offering. Mrs. Haines spoke on the Auxiliary—she said Mrs. Woodward's ambition was to have a branch in every Parish before the next General Convention. The speaker of the day, Rev. C. E. Snowden of the Executive Council, gave a most inspiring talk on the Advance Work of the Church. Mrs. Edward Williamson, our retiring president, returned from Oklahoma, where she had gone as a United Thank Offering Missionary, and told us something of the work there, which was most interesting.

The Fall Meeting was held at Holy Sacrament Mission, Highland Park, with 224 representatives from 34 Parishes present. Dean Bird spoke of the progress being made in the Missions of the Diocese, he also spoke on the Advance Work of the Church. The Advance Work Program was really the theme of the day and was also spoken of by the President, and Mrs. Cheston Morris. Mrs. Shreiner made suggestions for raising this money. Our special interest in the Advance Work, being the Hospital for colored people in New Bern, N. C., the principal speaker was Rev. Robert I. Johnson of New Bern, who gave a very appealing address on the need for a hospital there and why we should help build it.

As a result of his appeal a motion was carried to give any money received at the May, 1931, meeting above our $2,000.00 pledge to the Bishop, to this Fund for the Hospital. It is hoped that each Parish Auxiliary will make a special effort to support this Advance Work Program as generously as possible. Usually at our May meeting, the amount received barely covers our pledge of $2,000.00, so unless we make extraordinary effort we will fail in this effort.

Bishop Taitt, as always, gave us an impressive and inspiring talk.

Before adjournment the Auxiliary accepted an invitation to meet at the Church of the Redeemer, Bryn Mawr, on May 21st, 1931.

THE CONVOCATION OF GERMANTOWN

In the Convocation of Germantown there are 36 Parishes, 2 Chapels, and 15 Missions, thus making 53 centres for the worship of Almighty God and the work of the Episcopal Church.

Since our last report one of our Missions, that of St. Barnabas, Germantown, has become a self-supporting parish. We congratulate most heartily the Rev. E. S. Thomas, the Rector, and the faithful members of his congregation upon the splendid success they have achieved. We know they have worked hard; we wish them prosperity, and we pray that God's richest blessing may rest upon them.

That leaves us with fifteen Missions, five in the City of Philadelphia, and ten in Bucks County, and all of them seem to be doing good work though hampered financially by the general economic depression and unemployment. They are all anticipating better times.

St. Matthew's Mission, Oxford Circle, has, under the faithful direction of the Rev. Wm. O. Roome, assisted by a noble band of energetic laymen and women, made steady progress. They are now working hard to raise $7,000.00 so that they may begin the erection of a Parish House on a fine site which the Diocese owns close to the Boulevard at Large and Comly Streets. When this is erected, which we most sincerely hope will be soon, since the present accommodations of the Mission are very limited and the neighborhood is growing rapidly, the Parish will be known as the Church of The Messiah, having combined its interests with the old Church of the Messiah, Port Richmond, which has been sold.

We repeat a paragraph from last year's report, because we regret to say that it is still true. The Diocese having done nothing during the past year except pay the interest on the mortgage, and its share of expense incurred in putting a good concrete road which now surrounds the property.

"The Diocese owns a large and well situated piece of ground in the West Oak Lane section near Ogontz Avenue and City Line, where a Mission should have been started months ago, and would have been but for the lack of men and means. This is a great pity, because several of our Church people, who live in that vicinity, have been asking for services to be held in that densely populated neighborhood."

But we can add that the need is greater now than it was this time last year, and is increasing all the time, for houses are continually being erected and getting nearer to our lot, and on some sides are just across the street. This is a fine location, and it seems a great shame that we cannot make use of it by beginning a mission work there at once.

Each of the other three missions in Philadelphia County, namely those of Ascension, Rhawnhurst; St. Andrew's, Somerton, and St. Gabriel's, Feltonville, have continued their good work during the past year; and it is encouraging to note that in each case they have increased their income from collections and subscriptions. And St. Andrew's has promised to increase its contribution to the Convocation during 1931 by $100.00.

But each of these three has its special need. Ascension, Rhawnhurst, ought to have a second story added to its present building as soon as possible; for the existing large room has to be used for worship on Sunday, and for all kinds of parochial activities during the week, which is unfortunate as it does not tend to develop devotion. St. Andrew's, Somerton, greatly needs a larger Sunday School room. And the pastor and people of St. Gabriel's, Feltonville, are working hard to eliminate the mortgage that remains on their property. Then they contemplate the erection of a much-needed Rectory, for which there is plenty of room on their lot.

There have not been many changes in the missions in Bucks County during the past year. A new roof has been placed upon St. Wilfrid's Mission, Dolington, which, under the able leadership of the Rev. Amos Goddard, Rector of St. Luke's, Newtown, with the assistance of some hard-working women, is making very satisfactory progress. The north end of Bucks County, where the work of our Church centres in Emmanuel Mission, Quakertown, is under the Rev. W. J. Wilkie, who with untiring care looks after the members of his flock scattered throughout that large region.

The missions connected with the Bucks County Centre Mission, under the direction of the Rev. Waldo D. Parker, consisting of St. James, Langhorne; St. Wilfrid's, New Hope; Trinity, Solebury; Grace, Hulmeville, and Holy Nativity, Wrightstown, with the help of the Rev. Isaac Brooks, and the Rev. John Ledger, are carrying on a very useful and varied work largely among our rural communities. There are, however, several improvements that would considerably increase the efficiency of the work. It would, for instance, be a great help if the old Parish House at Langhorne could be sold, so that an additional room could be erected adjoining the church building. The Missionary in charge of Trinity, Solebury, states that a new roof is needed for the church, and that a new Sunday School room and kitchen would add much to their influence for good in the community, there being no suitable room for Guild Suppers or Socials in the neighborhood. If there could be a resident priest at New Hope he could fulfil the duties of a student pastor for the pupils at both the girls' and boys' schools there, and might possibly teach in the schools. The mission at Wrightstown would be considerably helped by the erection of a small Community House for social work, and by the use of a bus to collect children for the Sunday School.

The services of the other missions in Bucks County, namely, Incarnation, Morrisville; St. Andrew, Yardley, and St. Paul, Edgeley, have been well maintained, and each seems to be carrying on a very useful work in its community.

The Convocation of Germantown has one Mission among the Poles, that of St. Mary's, Manayunk, which is under the wise care of the Rev. Ambrose Baczewski, and has witnessed a good growth during the past year. We gladly avail ourselves of this opportunity of expressing our thanks to the Rector and Vestry of St. Stephen's, Wissahickon, for kindly granting them the use of their Parish House for Sunday and week-day schools.

We desire to express our heartfelt thankfulness to Mr. Casper Wister Haines and Miss Haines for the use for several years of their beautiful grounds for the Annual Garden Party, so splendidly managed by the members of our Woman's Aid. These gatherings are most helpful, not only for the financial assistance they provide, but also for the kindly social feeling they develop among the many members of the Convocation who gather for these happy occasions.

We are most grateful to the officers and members of the Woman's Aid of the Convocation, under the able and active leadership of Miss Elizabeth S. Brown, for the enthusiastic work they have accomplished during the past year, and for the great financial help they have given, especially for the $2000 they have contributed towards the Diocesan Campaign Fund. We are glad to append their Treasurer's Report, of which they may well be proud, and we ask that all the Parishes and Missions in the Convocation will send representatives to the meetings of the Woman's Aid at our Convocational gatherings, and especially that they will do their best to make the Garden Party to be held at Wyck, Germantown, the residence of Mr. Casper W. Haines, on Thursday, May 28 next, a great success.

THE WOMAN'S AID TO CONVOCATION OF GERMANTOWN

Business meetings were held at the stated meetings of Convocation with an average attendance of 90 women. In addition there was the annual spring service and meeting on March 18th at Grace Church, Mt. Airy, when the Meditations at the service were given by the Rector of St. Luke's Church, Germantown, the Rev. W. E. Conkling. There were about 80 women present.

The Annual Garden Party was held on May 28. Owing to inclement weather it could not be at Wyck but through the hospitality of Christ Church, who gave their Parish House and the most efficient committee in charge, everything was splendidly carried out. The proceeds went toward the pledges to the Diocesan Campaign to benefit St. Matthew's, Oxford Circle. The Annual Devotional Day in the autumn was given up to combine with the day planned for the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese on November 25th at Holy Trinity Chapel, addresses by the Rev. T. A. Conover of Bernardsville, N. J. Pledges were assembled for the year as follows:

To S. Gabriel's on the Boulevard	$200.00
To Rev. Amos Goddard (for upkeep of automobile)	200.00
To Rev. Waldo Parker (repairs and upkeep of cars for Country Centre Mission)	200.00

CONVOCATION OF NORRISTOWN, 1930

DEAN'S REPORT

There have been two changes in the personnel of the missionaries of the Convocation during the year. On June 1st, the Rev. Ernest J. Harry took charge of Epiphany Mission, Royersford, in addition to his duties as Rector of St. Paul's Church, Oaks, succeeding the Rev. Charles F. Scofield, who resigned because of illness. And we have now to record, with deep sorrow and earnest appreciation of his years of faithful and zealous labors as a missionary of this Convocation, the death of Mr. Scofield, which occurred at Phoenix, Arizona, December 28, 1930. Burial services were held at St. Mary's Church, Warwick, and the interment took place in the cemetery of St. James Church, Evansburg, January 12, 1931.

On October 1st, the Rev. Caleb Cresson took charge of Trinity Mission, Gulph Mills, succeeding the Rev. William Powell, who had served there faithfully and helpfully for two years. Mr. Cresson states that, as a result of his observations in the few months he has been working, he believes there is a valuable work to be done, but there is a great need for volunteer workers.

The Rev. Mr. Wilkie reports that the work at Holy Trinity, Lansdale, has been greatly aided by their new Parish House, and the additional expense connected therewith has been successfully carried by the Mission, which has at the same time maintained their record for generously supporting the general missionary work of the Church.

Advent Mission, Hatboro, under the leadership of the Rev. George W. Lamb, has had an encouraging year, and they plan to assume $1,100.00 of their missionary's salary for 1931, an increase of $100. They too are finding their new Parish House a great asset both to the Church and the Community.

An appropriation has been included in the budget for a separate missionary at St. Anne's, Willow Grove. It is our hope that when this appointment is made, an aggressive and growing work will be developed in this field, the population of which has grown rapidly in the past few years.

The Rev. Ambrose Baczewski, in charge of Holy Trinity Polish Mission, Conshohocken, reports 53 families and 179 communicants, and states that he has a nucleus of interested and loyal people who are deeply interested in this Mission.

The Woman's Aid, under the leadership of Mrs. E. Druitt Crawford, President, has had a particularly good year. The County Fair held at Mrs. Crawford's home in Gwynedd last June was very successful and enabled them to help a number of worthy objects in Convocation and Diocese, totalling over $1,100.00.

CONVOCATION OF NORTH PHILADELPHIA

The Parishes and Missions of this Convocation, while facing great problems and many changes, have closed a year of sustained interest and considerable progress. Last year two parishes were placed in the list of Missions, and this year another parish is about to be abandoned. Also the Church of The Messiah, Port Richmond, has been sold, and this parish united with St. Matthew's Mission, Oxford Circle, in the Convocation of Germantown. This is evidence of the shifting of population, which must be an increasing challenge to our missionary responsibilities.

On the other hand one entirely new mission and community work has been developed. Last spring it was found that thousands of colored people were living in the section east of Broad Street between Girard Avenue and Diamond Street. Services and a Sunday School were started in the parish house of the Church of The Incarnation, under the direction of Rev. James N. Deaver, who has done such aggressive work, that a building has been rented at 1301 Master Street which is open every day and evening for community, church, and social service work, with a Sunday School of nearly 100 and a congregation of over 50 Church people. This mission has taken the name of St. Christopher, and gives great promise for the future. We have an appropriation of $600.00 for this mission on the budget for 1931, but we need more funds, and more furniture and equipment, which we hope will be given, as the need is pressing.

Another advancing mission is St. Mary of the Annunciation (Italian) under Rev. Silvio Biagini. After careful consideration of various alternatives, it was decided to purchase the property adjoining the present mission, 3258 Memphis Street, demolish both buildings, and erect a new mission chapel with basement. The Convocation Committee has approved this undertaking, the architect's plans have been adopted, and the contracts awarded. From the Diocesan Campaign Fund $10,000 has been appropriated, and an additional $4,000 mortgage has been arranged, the interest guaranteed by the Rector of St. Clement's Parish. We are very grateful for this assistance.

One of the outstanding events in our Convocation has been the completion of the parish house for St. Ambrose Mission, Howard and Ontario Streets. This is a fitting climax to the ten years of service by Rev. Frederick B. Halsey, and crowns a devoted Ministry of great service to the Church and the community. From the Diocesan Campaign Fund $25,000 was appropriated; $10,000 is to be placed on a mortgage, and the responsibility for the balance, and the interest charges, will be assumed by the mission, which has already proved its faith and loyalty, and is growing stronger each year in numbers and spiritual life. We heartily congratulate Rev. Mr. Halsey and his people.

St. Barnabas Mission at Third and Dauphin Streets has been doing a very difficult work, and is growing in numbers. The abandoning of the Church building, and centering all the activities in the parish house has proved a wise and economical step. Rev. Albert W. Eastburn has rendered most devoted leadership, and it has been a year of unusual and difficult problems, because this mission has been the distributing place for all kinds of material help and valuable assistance in a community where financial depression and unemployment call for constant aid. During the past year many substantial improvements and repairs have been made to the parish building, and we hope in the near future the Church property can be sold.

At St. Bartholomew's, 25th Street and Lehigh Avenue, Rev. A. J. Carty is continuing fine, aggressive work, in the face of many difficulties. The congregation is increasing and the interest growing, and the mission has great promise for the future. A number of repairs have been made to the parish house, which is also used for Church Services, and the rectory has been thoroughly renovated and put in good repair.

At St. George's, Richmond, Rev. A. J. Arkin has continued his long and remarkable work over twenty-five years, which has resulted in redeeming and uplifting the entire community. Many changes are taking place in this section, but the beautiful Church and parish house were never used by greater numbers, or rendered more helpful service.

At St. George's, Venango, there are many evidences of growth, and a number of improvements have been made. This mission ministers to the entire neighborhood, and the new addition to the parish house, completed last year, has been more than justified. The large Men's Club and organizations are evidence of growing interest, but above all, one feels in this mission an atmosphere of deep spiritual reality, which could only come from such consecrated leadership as Rev. Arnold H. Hord, and Mrs. Hord also, have given to this work.

The two Polish missions are facing very different problems. At the old Church of The Advent there has been a great change in the population. Rev. J. C. Pienionzek has shown both faith and courage, but it is probable that something must be done with this mission and property in the near future. It is a situation that cannot be helped and must be faced.

At the Church of The Holy Redeemer in Kensington, a splendid work has been developed under Rev. E. M. Baczewski. There is a large and devoted congregation, and many activities, including a Church School.

Adjoining the Church of The Advent at 517 York Avenue is the Hebrew Christian Synagogue under Miss Ormsby. Though small in numbers, this mission to the Jews is laying foundations for the future, specially among the children.

Also at St. John's Settlement House at 3rd and Brown Streets, Deaconess Young continues her splendid settlement and social service work which is an inspiration and uplift to that whole section of the city with its teeming population.

St. Augustine's Mission for the Colored People, 21st and Columbia Avenue, is doing excellent work under Rev. Joseph H. Hudson, building on the foundations laid for so many years by Rev. H. S. McDuffey. This mission is handicapped for want of a proper parish house. The large congregation and Sunday School needs this new building and we are confident that with this substantial assistance, St. Augustine's would soon become an independent parish. Mr. Hudson is doing good work and needs our help and support.

Under a special commission, but functioning in our Convocation is All Souls Church for the Deaf—one of the most interesting missions in the Diocese, where Rev. Warren M. Smaltz continues his faithful ministry among these scattered people. One of the great benefactors of this mission has recently passed on; we refer to the late Mr. T. Broom Belfield, who gave so generously of time and money to this and many other institutions in the diocese.

Our Convocation has also sustained a great loss in the death of Mrs. Howard Clark of St. James' Parish, who so devotedly gave of her time and means in loving service, particularly in the work of our Woman's Aid.

Under the splendid leadership of Miss Laura Bell, our President, and the other officers and committees, the Woman's Aid has had the most successful year in its history. Besides redeeming the pledge to the Diocesan Campaign, many special appeals have been answered with substantial gifts and the annual Lawn Fete held again last June brought together a large number of people. We are grateful to all who worked so faithfully to make this effort such a success, and also to Mr. Caspar Wistar Haines and Miss Haines, for the loan of their beautiful and historic place, "Wyck," during the past ten years.

CONVOCATION OF SOUTH PHILADELPHIA

The contract has been given for the building of a small stone church, seating about one hundred persons, for the Mission of The Transfiguration, at 7th and Bigler Streets.

The cost of the new building is provided for by the Diocesan Campaign Fund.

The new place of worship will, in all probability, greatly stimulate interest in the work at the mission. The Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Minister-in-Charge, is quite confident that this will be so.

The Mission of the Holy Spirit continues to do a quiet work under the care of the Rev. Victor E. Holly, who also has charge of St. Cyprian's, West Philadelphia.

L'Emmanuello, the Italian congregation, has now been incorporated with St. Elizabeth's Church, and is under the care of St. James Church, 22nd and Walnut Streets. The diocese is relieved of financial obligation for this work.

Under the new arrangement both St. Elizabeth's and L'Emmanuello seem to have taken on a new lease of life.

Situated in the Convocation is the City Mission, which is doing a magnificent work this winter to aid the folk brought into destitution and want by reason of unemployment. This is one of the greatest contributions in applied Christianity that the Church in this diocese has ever been called upon to make, and nobly is the challenge being met. This work, while not being strictly convocational work, enters into the life and tasks of our missions and parishes alike, and so is a sharer, and a most welcome one, in our common work.

THE CONVOCATION OF WEST PHILADELPHIA

Following a careful survey of the district north of Market Street and west of 60th Street, an Italian Mission has been established with the Rev. G. A. Scarinci in charge. For the present services are being held in a rented portion of a private residence at 6335 Vine Street. In view of the fact that there are more than 15,000 Italians in the district outlined above and that only two Churches are ministering to these people, it would seem as if our Church faced an opportunity to do a work of considerable value.

It is a pleasure to report that St. Titus' Mission, Elmwood, is in a very prosperous condition, under the ministry of the Rev. A. L. Millet. Mr. Millet has been very successful in enlisting men in the work of the Mission with the result that the congregations are larger at the present time than for many years past. The people of the Mission are to be commended for the interest which they show in maintaining the building in good condition, a hard thing to do in some respects for the building is an old one.

St. Monica's Mission is doing a much larger work in its new location at 48th and Haverford Avenue. The people of this Mission are suffering keenly in the present industrial depression. In spite of this fact, the Rev. Mr. Bright is able to report progress in virtually every department of the Mission's work.

St. Cyprian's Mission, Elmwood, where the Rev. Mr. Holly is doing devoted work, faces an insurmountable obstacle to further progress in the fact that within thirty feet of the front door of the Mission building there runs an open sewer, forty feet wide, built by the city to carry off the surface water of a large part of the region known as Elmwood. The situation is an extremely difficult one, and no money is available for moving the Mission to another site. (Some $14,000.00 is invested in the present building and ground.)

The Convocation is indebted to the Woman's Aid which has given valued assistance in many ways during the past year.

APPENDIX H

Report of the Church Foundation

At the Annual Meeting of the Members, held May 14th, 1930, the following gentlemen were elected to the Board to serve for the ensuing three years:

REV. G. C. CARTER	MR. R. S. MORRIS
REV. J. L. HADY	MR. F. H. MOSS
	MR. P. S. WILLIAMS

At a Meeting of the Board held October 8th, 1930, accepted a bequest by Charles G. Sower, deceased, for the Italian Mission.

At a Meeting held April 8th, 1931, accepted a Trust, under the will of Francis W. Sharpless, for St. Mark's Church for use of the White Mission at 19th and Lombard Streets.

Accepted Trust, under the will of Francis W. Sharpless, for St. John's Episcopal Church at Concordville, Delaware County.

Respectfully submitted,

E. B. MCCARTHY,
Secretary.

APPENDIX J

Report of the Registrar of the Diocese

The following gifts have been made during the past year:

Portrait of the Reverend Henry W. Duchachet, an early Rector of St. Stephen's Church, Philadelphia.

Photograph of the Right Reverend O. W. Whitaker.

View of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, New York.

Group of Bishops at the General Convention at Portland, Oregon, September, 1922.

Miscellaneous collection of photographs.

The present fire-proof vault in the Church House is becoming yearly more inadequate as a place of storage for valuable papers of the Diocese.

The vault in the old Church House, 12th and Walnut Streets, was used as a receptacle for the records only of the Standing Committee and the Registrar, and for this purpose it was sufficient. But since the organization of the Executive Office and the development of the other departments of Diocesan work which require a place for the safe keeping of their valuable papers, the present vault has become crowded to its utmost capacity. It would be desirable, if possible, to enlarge the present fire-proof vault.

I am sorry to report the loss of two books containing a catalogue of the Registrar's records. This valuable catalogue was made a few years ago by Mr. Clarence K. Klink, a member of the Committee on Parochial History. The catalogue has recently disappeared. Every effort has been made to locate it but without success. It would be regrettable indeed if this catalogue should be permanently lost as it is an indispensable guide to the location of the most valuable items in this collection.

I am calling this matter to the attention of the readers of this report in the hope that by their assistance the two books containing the catalogue may be discovered and returned to their proper place.

ARNOLD HARRIS HORD,

Registrar of the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

MAY 1, 1931.

APPENDIX K

Third Annual Report of the Cathedral Church of Christ

During the past year a topographical plan of the Cathedral property at a scale of thirty-two feet to the inch was completed under the direction of Mr. Frank R. Watson, on which have been placed models of the future Cathedral Church, Chapter House, Dormitories for the Clergy, Choir School and other appropriate buildings required for the development and maintenance of the Cathedral enterprises. These models are in no sense architectural designs for the several buildings, but are intended merely to show the availability of the site for the largest Cathedral activities and the most desirable locations for the various buildings. The completion of this model has been most advantageous, for it has convinced the members of the Chapter as well as many others, who have inspected it, of the extraordinary advantages of the site for the erection of a Cathedral worthy of the great Diocese of Pennsylvania, which with its associated activities will become more and more in the years to come a centre, from which the manifold influences there originating will spread beneficently throughout the Diocese. With this model as a guide, it will be possible for intending benefactors to see at a glance how to make most effective any benefactions they may have in mind and to co-ordinate their gifts in such a way as to ensure a steady and harmonious growth of the whole project.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Chapter,

JOHN J. COLLIER,
Registrar pro tem.

APPENDIX M

Annual Report of the Commission on Music

During the past Convention year, members of the Commission have been consulted by clergy and choirmasters, on various difficulties and problems; the kind of music to have, suggestions of services, anthems, Christmas carols, advice as to type of music adapted to smaller choirs, etc. The members of the Commission feel very strongly the need of study on the part of the clergy. We believe that much that is faulty in the selection of music to be sung, and mistakes made in the musical ordering of the service, are due to the lack of thorough preparation of the clergy for this essential feature of Church worship. The Commission would welcome an opportunity to form study classes to aid the clergy in performing this important part of their work.

One of our members has continued his position on the faculty of the Diocesan Normal School, to the satisfaction of all concerned.

The Festival Choir Association of the Diocese, is an outgrowth of the commission's work, and we desire to report for it, that in addition to its annual service at the Church of the Advocate, last January, it has demonstrated its usefulness to the diocese on two occasions, viz.—at the request of the Bishop, the choir sang at the Missionary Mass Meeting in the Academy of Music last May; also at the request of the committee on arrangements, the choir rendered the music in the service of Thanksgiving for the return of Bishop Garland from abroad.

It is not to be expected that the members of the chorus should pay for the music or other expenses of the Association; and since the only available source of income is the offering received at the annual service, and this is far from sufficient, therefore, your Commission appeals to the Convention for assistance in meeting the expenses of the past season.

RESOLVED: That, with the approval of the Bishop, an appropriation of $150 be made to the Festival Choir Association of the Diocese.

RESOLVED: That the Commission on Music be continued.

APPENDIX N

Report of the Commission on Church Building

FOR THE YEAR ENDING MAY 1, 1931

The resignation of Mr. Frank H. Moss was received with great regret and full appreciation of his valuable service to the Commission during the seventeen years of his membership. Mr. Lardner Howell was appointed by Bishop Taitt to succeed Mr. Moss.

Since the last Convention of the Diocese, numerous and various projects were submitted to the Commission for counsel and advice. These were considered by committees appointed to personally investigate the problems, and later passed upon by the Commission in general sessions.

Among the items relating to the buildings for recently established Missions were those connected with St. Monica's, for Colored persons; and that of St. Mary of The Annunciation, for the Italian people, at Willard and Memphis Streets, in which case advice was given to the architects, Mr. Watson and his associates, with a view of so modifying the plans as to keep them within the funds available.

Concerning the Mission of The Transfiguration, 6th and Bigler Streets, advice was given to Mr. Gill, the architect, leading to the modification of the plans which he had prepared.

At All Saints' Mission, Darby, the pavement and the wall about the lot were demolished by the Telephone Company for the purpose of laying wires, but have been replaced to the satisfaction of the Commission.

The Rector of Christ Church sought advice concerning the disposition of the diverse memorial tablets on the walls of that precious building so that they might be arranged in a sequence in harmony with the architecture of the interior. Designs for certain others prepared by Mr. Sellers were approved, and these tablets are now in place. The preservation of the slabs covering graves in the floor of the aisles has become an object of solicitude by the Commission; and other matters concerning structural details in the edifice are under consideration.

The Vestry of St. Thomas', Whitmarsh, presented problems relating to certain gravestones, and advice was particularly asked about the designs for a group of Celtic crosses intended for the churchyard.

The Rector of Trinity Church, Swarthmore, sought advice on the plans for a new church building prepared by Mr. Casey. Suggestions were made as to modify the dimensions of the Sanctuary and the Choir, and of the Porch.

The Convention is reminded that the Commission operates under Canonical appointment, and, as has been stated year by year, the Commission exists not only to disapprove or to condemn projects, but to assist in the solving of the building problems of parishes and missions. Deans of Convocations are urged to co-operate with the Commission in the recommendations of the Committees, and to keep the Commission informed of the progress of the building of the structures under way.

In the past twenty years or so, the designing of ecclesiastical buildings has been given increasing attention, and the artistic ability of the designers has been shown in their expressions of the mediaeval structures and a greater understanding of the uses to which Anglican churches are put. This Commission feels that the efforts put forth, since its establishment, in the studies of the problems submitted to it, in this time, have been not without fruit and influence. A list of architects deemed qualified to undertake church building has been maintained by the Commission for use by diocesan authorities. In the past year a number of firms have sought the recommendation of the Commission, but, after diligent investigation of their claims by the Commission, the list has not been enlarged.

Obediently submitted,

BURTON CHANCE,
Secretary.

APPENDIX O

Report on Church Work Among the Deaf, 1930

As heretofore, this work centers at All Souls' Church for the Deaf, 16th Street above Alleghany Avenue, Philadelphia. The Rev. Warren M. Smaltz continues as Priest-in-charge of the Mission.

The present Church and Parish House were made possible through the benefaction of the late T. Broom Belfield. For years he retained an earnest interest in this work of bringing the Gospel to a class of handicapped people peculiarly deserving, and in his passing the deaf people have lost one of their warmest friends. In emergencies he could always be depended upon to come forward with substantial help. Though his benefactions extended into many spheres of the Church's activities, the deaf came to regard him as peculiarly their own. He was known to them far beyond the confines of Philadelphia, and his memory is revered by them. He now rests from his labors; may perpetual light shine upon him.

The Mission has also lost its Accounting Warden in the passing of the late Charles M. Pennell. Mr. Pennell served in that capacity for more than twenty years, and rare indeed were the occasions when he was absent from the Sunday services. Deaf from birth, and severely handicapped, he employed such abilities as he had to the best possible uses with unwearied willingness, and combined with his labors a singularly sweet disposition. He has gone to his everlasting reward; may he enter into the joy of his Lord.

The Commission on Church Work Among the Deaf has continued its oversight of this work. Its practical helpfulness has been demonstrated many times, and it is becoming increasingly common for other Dioceses to adopt the method of having a work such as this placed under the care and direction of a Commission.
